Deadly intersection awaits long process

Paperwork began at 59, Grass Lake

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Improving an intersection—even one as accident prone as the one at Grass Lake Road and Route 59 between Antioch and Lake Villa—takes a little more time than many people have the patience for.

Even State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) has a long paper trail of letters dating back to 1992 requesting improvements at the intersection, and he still is writing letters and making conference calls to officials at the Illinois Department of Transportation to expedite the whole process.

In fact, what many people don't know is that IDOT engineers have been studying the intersection for more than a year now and are likely to submit a design proposal next summer.

Then, the environmental study can begin.

Then, the land approval process can begin.

Then, the construction process can begin.

And, if all goes well over the next two to three years, the intersection will be equipped with the necessary improvements.

"Unfortunately, we can't go out and build an intersection tomorrow. There's a process, and it takes time to complete," Churchill said.

The intersection captured attention July 6 when two Antioch teens were killed there. See DEADLY page A14

NICC fears industry for neighbors

KEVIN HANRAHAN

At least one group opposes the idea of the Village of Antioch annexing a 37-acre parcel into the village and transforming the existing farm field into a light industrial park.

While the Northern Illinois Conservation Club believes the proposed industrial park would damage its prized preserves, the Village of Antioch believes it can control the type of industry that would go into the proposed park.

The 37-acre parcel in question is located east of Route 83 and just north of Loon Lake. The village intends to annex the property in an effort to expand its industrial base.

Investigators determining cause of boat accidents

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Although everyone has been accounted for, Lake County Sheriff's investigators are still trying to piece together the causes of two separate boating accidents that left three dead and seven others injured.

Two different boating collisions on the Chain O' Lakes occurred July 11 within two hours of each other and less than a mile from each other.

"We're still in the process of reconstructing the accidents," said Undersheriff Gary Del Re.

Both accidents occurred following the boat races at Blarney's Island on Grass Lake.

Dead are Arnold Carlson, 56, of McHenry, Chris Carlson, 28, of Arlington Heights, and Renee Roman, 25, of Wonder Lake. Their boat collided with another boat near the Route 12 bridge on Nippersink Lake. Two other passengers in the boat were injured as were three people from the other boat.

Del Re said investigators are still waiting for the toxicology reports from the coroner's office to determine if alcohol may have impaired Carlson's judgment. The passengers in the other boat tested negative to alcohol breath tests.

In the other accident on the same night, David Weber, 26, of Fox Lake, faces charges of operating a boat under the influence of alcohol and reckless boating after his boat struck another in a channel that links Grass, Fox and Nippersink lakes.

Del Re said Charles Dalenberg of Palatine tried to avoid Weber's vessel. Dalenberg passed an alcohol breath test on the scene.

The accident involving Weber sparked an intense search rescue involving several dive teams which caused a media frenzy. At one time, 11 people were believed missing from Weber's boat. Either the See CAUSE page A10

Kids learn to ski at Hastings Lake YMCA

AMANDA MILLER
Staff Reporter

Water skiing is going into its third year at the Hastings YMCA Camp with high enrollment and good results.

Most of the skiers at the YMCA are beginners, but advanced students are more than welcomed. The ages range from 8 to 14 and the class takes place every weekday in two sessions. First from 9:15 to 11:45 a.m. and second from 1 to 4 p.m.

The sessions last for 13 days and there is an average of 20 kids per session.

"The kids really enjoy the skiing," said Dan Hannula, the skiing instructor at Hastings YMCA.

The program consists of several different levels including: Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced, and Expert. There is a check list for each level of difficulty. The students have to complete a certain amount of skills to reach the next level and gain a certification from YMCA.

"The skiers get a certificate from the ski program after they make it through various levels," explained Frank Palmisano, Assistant Program Director and Specialty Camp Director for the Hastings Lake YMCA.

The kids get to also learn skills that they are interested in such as knee boarding.

Liz Wilson is a 13-year-old who has been in the program since it began.

"I have a lot of fun... it always looked like a cool thing to do," said Wilson.

At this point Wilson is halfway through the intermediate level and she really wants to try to slalom next week.

"I pulled a muscle in my back because I skied a little too long yesterday, but I'm ready to go back out again," said Wilson.

Antioch, Lake Villa continue border agreement talks

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Both the Antioch and Lake Villa mayors have indicated that a mutually agreed upon border agreement continues to be in the works between the two growing towns.

'The developers will know up front which municipality to go to, rather than going before two municipalities and bidding for the highest density'

Marilyn Shineflug
Antioch Mayor

Antioch Mayor Marilyn Shineflug noted that previous informal discussions with Lake Villa officials have turned more official.

"We will draft a formal agreement and send it to Lake Villa," Shineflug said. "It will be an agreement for both sides."

Lake Villa Mayor Frank Loffredo said discussions were ongoing and an agreement was under review.

"When it's done, there will be an area delineated as part of the border agreement," Loffredo said.

Generally speaking, a boundary agreement is a guarantee each village would respect unofficial borders as parts of the other village's domain.

Border agreements also try to prevent developers from playing one village off the other for more dense housing projects.

"It's for future planning of the municipalities, so developers know exactly who they are dealing with," Loffredo said.

Shineflug agreed. "The developers will know up front which municipality to go to, rather than going before two municipalities and bidding for the highest density," she said.

Talks of a boundary agreement became an issue when developer Rich Ender sought to annex his property into the Village of Lake Villa. The 60-acre parcel north of Grass Lake Road and west of Oakland School includes portions of Antioch Township.

The developer sought to annex into Lake Villa in order to connect with the village's sewer service already offered across Grass Lake Road in the Painted Lakes subdivision now under construction.

Shineflug conceded that the property will likely become part of Lake Villa because the Village of Antioch cannot provide sewer to the site.

"It looks to me that property will be in Lake Villa," Shineflug said.

The proposed subdivision is opposed by the nearby Loon Lakes Management Association, which fears storm water run-off from the new subdivision would be directed into the Loon lakes.

As an incentive, there have been discussions that the developer may pay for a sewer connection to Oakland School.

The Lake Villa Plan Commission was to hold a hearing this week on a proposed residential development for the property. Different reports have indicated that the housing density on the property would range from as high as 120 units to as low as 60 to 70 units.

ACHS leaders aim for higher attendance

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Just as Antioch Community High School officials were preparing a report about the high school's improved attendance rating, the top administrators were looking for even better numbers.

Since Superintendent Dennis Hockney and Principal Susan Mullendore took the helm last fall and imposed higher expectations, the school responded with an average daily attendance that jumped 1.34 percent.

To compare, the average daily attendance was 92.68 percent in 1994-95. Over the past year, it improved to 94.02 percent.

"We won't be satisfied until we're at 96 (percent)," said Hockney, who was pleased with the improvement but has even higher goals in mind.

According to various state funding formulas, the attendance improvement also means the school district could receive between $13,000 and $15,000 in additional state funding.

Mullendore said the overall push for better attendance is to form a better student as demanded by the work force. One of the main concerns of employers is worker attendance, she has been told.

"Their presence is absolutely necessary to be productive in the work place," Mullendore said of worker attendance. "Here, we want our students contributing on a daily basis. It creates a work ethic, healthy living and motivation."

School officials said studies have indicated a link between schools with higher attendance ratings (usually 95 percent or better) and students who perform better on standardized tests.

Libertyville, Stevenson and Lake Forest high schools, for example, usually report among the highest ACT and SAT scores in Lake County. They also have among the highest average daily attendance ratings.

At ACHS, Mullendore said the focus over the last year was on those students who were truant or who had a large number of unexcused absences.

Last year, for example, there were more than 300 students who missed 15 days or more.

"They're not coping with minor illnesses very well," noted Jodee Culberson, assistant principal in charge of attendance. "In the real world, you can't miss over 10 days of work in a year."

The attendance improvement last year showed a 68 percent decrease in unexcused absences, Culberson noted.

"The improvement this year came from students who in the past accumulated a lot of unexcused absences," said Mullendore, who instituted an alarm clock program for those students with chronic attendance problems.

While there are tangible benefits to better attendance ratings, like more state funding, Mullendore said, "The goal is that attendance becomes intrinsic. It affects attitude, and, in turn, it affects performance."

The incoming freshmen class of 2000 will especially need to take attendance seriously as graduation requirements increased from 20 credits to 22.5 credits.

"We want to establish good attendance habits up front," Mullendore said.

As Antioch High School met one attendance goal of improvement, the prevailing attitude indicates that even higher goals are forthcoming.

"We're not finished yet," Mullendore said.

ACHS frosh heads to science academy

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Denise Lorenz will represent Antioch Community High School this year at the prestigious Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy in Aurora.

A graduate of Grass Lake School in Antioch, Lorenz accepted the invitation after being selected for the Class of 1999.

Since she was a sixth-grader at MacArthur Middle School in Westchester, Ill., Lorenz has excelled in math and science and has been groomed for the academy, which caters to gifted students in a college-like setting.

"My sixth-grade teacher suggested it would be a good place for me to go to school," Lorenz recalled.

Her teachers at Grass Lake School continued to challenge Lorenz, and she went on to become the class valedictorian there.

As a freshman at ACHS last year, Lorenz began taking sophomore classes such as geometry and biology.

"All my teachers have been helpful," said Lorenz, who did not want to single out a particular teacher. "It seems like all my teachers have taken me to the next step."

Lorenz thinks of her mother, Janet Loss, as her true role model in life.

She also participated in the Environmental Club and Sigma Alpha Delta, which is an alcohol and drug awareness program at the high school. She also keeps active with her Girl Scout Troop in Cicero.

Only the creme of the crop of high school freshmen from throughout the state get accepted to the Math and Science Academy, where students com-

'All my teachers have been helpful. It seems like all my teachers have taken me to the next step.'
Denise Lorenz

plete the final three years of high school in a rigorous college-prep atmosphere.

The average grade point average, for example, of those accepted this year was 3.86 on a 4.0 scale.

"The strength of the applicant pool and the credentials of your students serve as a direct indicator of the quality of the educational program that you provide," wrote Dr. LuAnn Smith to ACHS. Smith heads the admission office at the academy.

As for Lorenz, her main interest lies in both math and science with a preference toward animals on the science side and a preference of geometry over algebra on the math side.

"I prefer pictures as opposed to equations," Lorenz mused about geometry versus algebra.

At the same time, she hopes to develop her artistic talents. But the academy does not offer visual art classes.

"I think I will be taking some art classes at Antioch over the summer," Lorenz said.

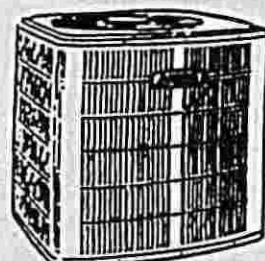

She looks forward to the wide-range of subjects offered for fast-track students like herself. Lorenz also looks forward to hands-on lab work in the science classes.

"Some of the kids have been published for some of their scientific experiments," Lorenz noted.

While she welcomes the challenge of the academy, she also fears the competitive nature of students there.

"I am afraid of over working myself," Lorenz said. "I will miss my family and friends incredibly." Nevertheless, as she has exhibited so far in her young life, Lorenz intends on "doing my work to the best of my ability."

Emmons holds registration

Registration for the 1996-97 school year will be held July 23 and July 24 from 2 to 8 p.m. at the school. All families who have students who will be attending Emmons must register and pay their school fees on one of these dates. New families to the Emmons district must call the school as soon as possible so they can be added to enrollment. The Emmons PTO will also have its supply store set up so parents can purchase their student's supplies for the upcoming school year. For more information, call 395-1105.

Spanish students need families

Homes for 34 Spanish students ages 13-19 are being sought by the Educational Homestay Programs. The students will be in Lake county August 1-27. They will be escorted on tours around Chicago and area attractions relieving the family the financial burden of sight seeing with the students. The students are simply looking to spend some time with an average American family. For more information call coordinator Carla Mondt at (847) 855-9295.

Lindenfest looking for marchers

Lindenfest organizers expect about 100 entries for this year's parade on Aug. 10. The theme is "Lindenfest Olympiad." Organizers suggest participants to theme an event or country in the Olympics. Entries must be submitted by July 15 and provide a certificate of insurance. For more information call Judy Czyzwick at 356-6514.

Loose dogs create traffic hazard

On July 14, police were dispatched to Route 173 near Burger King about two dogs on the loose. Upon arrival, police found a black lab and a brown lab running on Rte. 173. Police said the dogs were impeding traffic. Police charged the dog owners Mitchell Stepanek, 32, of Antioch, and Christopher Spiler, 33, of Antioch, with violating a local ordinance which prohibits "dogs at large." They were released on recognizance bond and will appear in Grayslake court Aug. 23.

Teen found with pot

While on routine patrol July 12, police observed Timothy Irving, 18, of Antioch, enter Subway. Having prior knowledge that Irving was wanted by the Lake County Sheriff's Department, police proceeded to arrest him. He was wanted on a $10,000 bond for a domestic battery charge. During a body search at the police station, police found a brass pipe filled with cannabis. He was charged with possession of cannabis. He will appear in Grayslake court Aug. 14.

Speeder wanted

On July 14, police arrested John McHale, 40, of Antioch, for numerous traffic violations and two outstanding warrants. Police clocked McHale traveling 43 mph in a 30 mph zone on North Avenue. Upon further investigation, police learned McHale was wanted on a $1,000 bond by the Lake County Sheriff's Department for deceptive practices and on a $5,000 bond by the DuPage County Sheriff's Department for failure to appear in court. He was charged for speeding, improper lane usage and no insurance. McHale was transported to Lake County Jail. He will appear in Grayslake court for the Antioch charges Aug. 28.

Charged with DUI

Harold C. Lemke III, 22, of Grayslake, was charged with driving under the influence, two counts of speeding, improper lane usage and driving under the influence with a blood alcohol content greater than .10. Lemke was arrested by Lake Villa police when stopped traveling east bound on Grand Ave., July 13 at 3:20 a.m.

Letters may help deadly intersection

KEVIN HANRAHAN

Staff Reporter

Antioch Rescue Squad Chief Tim Osmond is encouraging a letter campaign to request the state to expedite the highway improvement process at the corner of Route 59 and Grass Lake Road.

Osmond was one of the rescue personnel on the scene when Paul Waszak, 19, and Chaneice Cermak, 17, both of Antioch, died at the intersection following a traffic accident.

The two young adults were returning home July 6 on a motorcycle. While traveling north on Rte. 59, they stopped at the green light on Grass Lake Road to wait for oncoming traffic to pass before turning left. A man driving a van, however, tried to avoid the stopped motorcycle but collided with it, sending the motorcycle into a car traveling in the opposite lane.

"I think they need left turn lanes there," Osmond said bluntly. As a volunteer paramedic with the Antioch Rescue Squad, Osmond has responded to many calls at the accident-prone intersection.

According to the Lake County Sheriff's Department, it was the first fatal accident since 1990.

The Illinois Department of Transportation has included the intersection as part of its five-year highway improvement program.

Osmond said he has contacted State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) to help expedite the process. State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion) said she will use her influence as well to move the intersection up on a priority list.

Geo-Karis was instrumental in getting a traffic signal at Sand Lake Road and Route 45 near Lindenhurst.

Osmond said a letter campaign to IDOT officials could also play an influential role.

"We're asking them to put that intersection on a higher priority list to make some changes there," Osmond said. "It's a request to move it up on a priority list."

As a trustee on the Antioch Township board, he was able to get the board to send a letter to IDOT asking for quick measures there.

In addition to the lack of turning lanes and traffic signal arrows, Osmond noted that many people cut through the gas station on the corner to avoid waiting for other motorists stopped at the intersection.

"It's a real tough traffic area," said Osmond.

Editor's Note: A copy of a sample letter to send to Illinois Department of Transportation is also printed with this article. People wishing to write a letter can make any other changes they deem necessary.

Re: Lake County Intersection of Route 59 and Grasslake Road, Antioch

Dear Mr. Carlson:

We are asking for your immediate attention to the necessary improvements needed at the above intersection. It is our understanding that this intersection is listed on your priority list for the next five years. We are requesting that this be given first priority.

On 4th of July weekend we lost two young adults at this intersection. They were waiting to make a left hand turn (there are no turn lanes provided at this intersection) were rear-end throwing them into the opposite line of traffic. They were killed and four others seriously injured. We have had numerous accidents with injuries and property loss due to the large amount of traffic increasing daily.

Please give this intersection first priority for improvements in signals and turning lanes.

Very truly yours,

We talk about people like this who fudge the rules

During the course of one's life we all have a tendency, on occasion, to stretch a rule or law to its limit. Most of us have driven 70 mph when it's posted 65 mph. Who hasn't gone through the "10 items or less" line with 11 items? Who out there hasn't fudged a pound or two on their driver's license? I'm not talking about committing a felony or breaking one of the Ten Commandments, just those little things we know we shouldn't do, but with a quick glance around you see nobody is watching, so what the heck! Recently a not-quite-senior-citizen-aged yet way-above-middle-aged couple were returning from a get away trip up north. The husband decided to stop off at a popular fast food eatery for a sandwich and seeing as wifey had just awoken from her morning nap she opted to stay in the truck. (Doesn't this generations know about drive-thru's?) Well while wifey was waiting she noticed a sign posted by the dumpster that stated: PLEASE DO NOT FEED THE SEA GULLS.

Now she knew she had been napping for awhile but certainly not long enough to get clear across country from the woodlands of upper Wisconsin to the seashore. She then sighted two innocent white gulls perched near her vehicle. Now we have all been on those road trips where husbands can go for hours without even acknowledging your presence, unless of course you read the map wrong, so starved for any decent conversation, the woman lowered her passenger window to chat with the two gulls.

The banter was going along quite nicely when, with total disregard for the posted sign, the human one began tossing pieces of apple to her newly acquired friends—has the women never been to the ocean!! Well, soon a few more feathered friends appeared from overhead and began scooping up their share of the apple. After a few more tidbits made their way from the window, about a dozen more of the winged relatives covened down on the women. Still the luscious morsel's were being pitched from the window and soon just about every gull from the continental United States and a few stray ones from Canada joined the feisty gathering.

Now most normal law abiding citizens would have quickly refrained from any such further action, but not this animal-loving, slightly unbalanced one. Even with the screeches and screams of the sea gulls deafening to one's ears, the female law-breaker still proceeded to flip pieces of apple out the window. The sky was black with them, the air was filled with their ear-piercing screams, the parking lot was covered white with their mementos, yet the undaunted one still

That is until an employee of the establishment exited the building with a dust pan and broom in his hand to tidy up the parking lot—busted!

The apple flipping immediately ceased and the window was quickly rolled up, but not before the employee spotted the culprit responsible for the heinous crime sitting red-faced in her truck directly in front of the posted sign. The employee turned back into the building.

The outlaws husband returned shortly with the sandwiches making some nonchalant remark about all the darn sea gulls, while wifey huddled, guilty as sin, in her seat munching her food. Following closely behind her husband, the restaurant employee once again exited the building this time toting the latest high-tec power washer to rid the parking lot of its newly acquired whitewash. He spotted the Illinois license plates on the retreating truck, shook his head and muttered under his breath:

Children have fun, learn from 'Games With History'

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Ancient pastimes dating back to the Romans will be relived as "Games With A History" will be offered.

The Antioch Department of Parks and Recreation and the Lake County Museum will sponsor "Games With A History" July 25 from 10 a.m. to noon at Pederson Park.

Children will learn Marbles, Beaversticks and Mancala as well as the rules and history associated with each of the games.

"We do millions of basketball and soccer camps over the summer. This looked like something unique," said Cheryl McCameron, director of the parks department.

A representative from the Lake County Museum will lead the activity. Participants will receive an activity booklet with all game rules and etiquette.

Debbie Fandrei of the museum will be on hand.

She noted that Marbles dates back to the Roman times. A circle is drawn in the and participants take turns shooting at the marbles in the circle. The shooter collects those knocked out of the circle.

"The object is to walk away with all the marbles," Fandrei said. "It could be played for fun or for keeps."

Mancala is a board game which dates back to ancient African civilizations. Similar to backgammon, the object is move stones into your own pit.

"It's more of a strategy game," Fandrei said.

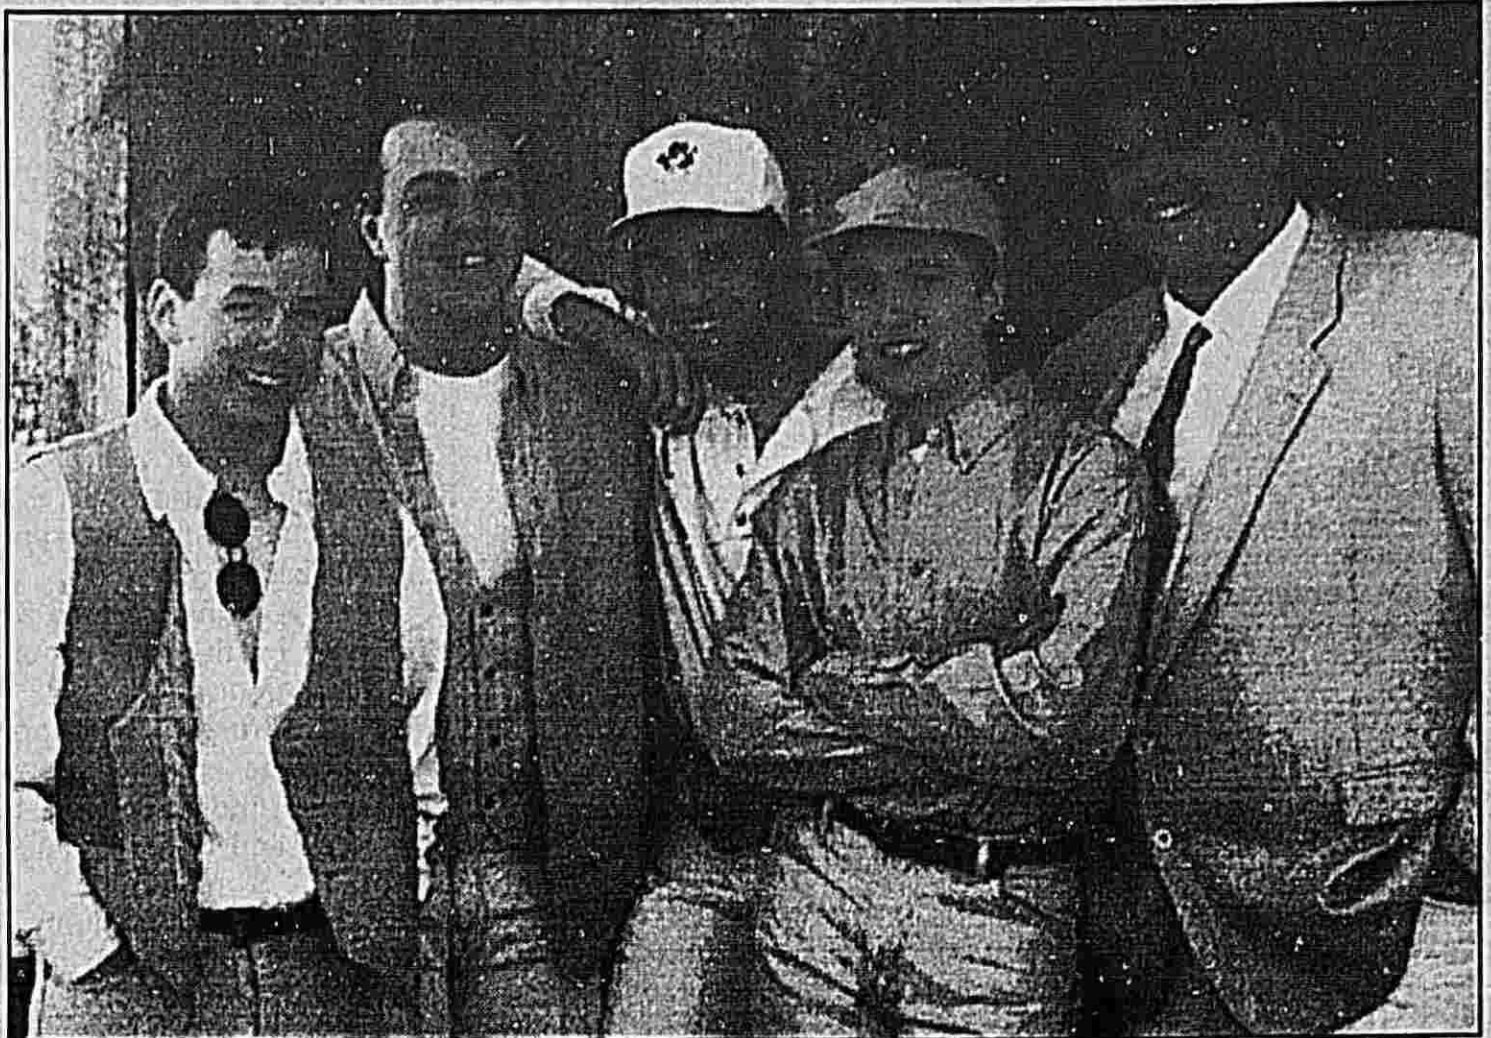

Beaversticks is a Native American game in which the settlers later stole and turned into pick-up sticks.

"Essentially, you try to pull a stick out of a pile without making the other sticks move," Fandrei said.

There will be instructions on making homemade versions of the games will included.

"The program also gives children a sense of where these types of games came from," Fandrei added.

Cost is $5 for village residents, $10 for township residents and $15 for participants outside the township. To register, call 395-2160.

Discords perform Sunday night

Favorite local band The Discords will be the final performers in the four-day State of Antioch/Maxwell Street Days event sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce. The Discords perform from 4 - 6 p.m. on the downtown stage. The Discords were incorrectly pictured in a special section on the event inserted into the July 12 edition of the Antioch News-Reporter. The error is deeply regretted.

Jaycees to sell circus tickets during Maxwell Street Days

Get your circus tickets now!

The Antioch Jaycees along with the Advertiser Network announced that they are sponsoring the Kelly Miller Brothers Circus Sept. 10.

Jaycees will be selling tickets during Maxwell Street Days this weekend in front of the Chamber of Commerce Office on Main Street.

Other ticket outlets include the First National Bank of Antioch, Piggly Wiggly, and JJ Blinkers.

The circus is just one of the many fund-raisers the club has each year to fund many services in the Antioch community.

The three-ring circus will be held at Oakland School on the corner of Grass Lake and Deep Lake roads. Circus times on Sept. 10 will be 4:30 and 7:30 p.m. A sneak preview to see the animals unloaded and the tents raised will be held at 7:30 a.m.

Founded in 1938 by the Miller family of Oklahoma, it is one of the few remaining tent circuses in America.

'Taste' offers vacations during entertainment

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Saddle up your best Country and Western garb and brush up on your Rock 'N' Roll trivia, there are free vacations ready for the taking during the "Taste of Antioch."

Chuck Cermak's All American Travel is offering a number of vacation packages for the winning during the live entertainment on Friday and Saturday at the Taste of Antioch.

As part of Friday's Country and Western night, the best dressed and best dancing couple can win two round-trip air tickets to anywhere in America where Trans-Air flies.

Bill Garcia will not only give a live performance between 6:30 and 10:30 p.m., but he will judge the best-dressed dancing couple.

"They have to be good dancers and they to look good," Cermak said.

Also at the All American Travel table, people can sign-up for various other prize drawings including a two-night, three-day stay at Sam's Town in Las Vegas.

During Saturday's Rock 'N' Roll Nite, Apple vacations will offer travel coupons during a Rock 'N' Roll trivia contest.

The "Grease Band" will headline live from 8 to 10:30 p.m.

Antioch merchants will continue their sidewalk sales as well during "Maxwell Street Days" through Sunday.

The Taste of Antioch and Maxwell Street Days will conclude Sunday. The final performance will include the "Lakes Area Band" from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., the "Illinois Brass Band" from 1 to 3 p.m., and the local a cappella group the "Discords" from 4 to 6 p.m.

Christian Life Fellowship plans Maxwell Street Days activities

Local Christians will be sharing their faith with the crowds at Maxwell Street Days and The Taste of Antioch July 18 through 21. Using a video of local people telling about their belief in God along with printed materials and personal contact; the aim is to help people gain a greater understanding of Christianity and the Church.

In addition, a short survey will be taken to find out how the local community vies Christian belief and religious beliefs in general. On completion of the survey, participants will be entered into a drawing for gift giveaways which include a Schwinn bicycle, Shamano fishing gear and $75 gift certificates for local stores.

Children's articles are also on the agenda. Puppet shows, live performances, story times, and craft making will delight kids 4 years old to sixth grade, from 10 a.m. to noon, and 1 to 3 p.m. Refreshing ice cold water will be on hand for anyone needing to quench their thirst.

Sponsored by Christian Life Fellowship these activities and more will be located in the walkway next to J.J. Blinks that links The Taste with Maxwell Days.

Village postpones vote for rescue agreement

KEVIN HANRAHAN

Staff Reporter

Antioch is expected to become the latest community to endorse and sign on to the Lake County Fire Departments' Specialized Response Teams intergovernmental agreement.

The pact provides insurance liability coverage for the Lake County fire departments that have pooled their resources to create rescue teams that respond to specialized emergencies.

The response teams are sponsored by the Lake County Fire Chiefs Association.

Antioch trustees postponed voting on the agreement until they further understood the liability issue and costs to the village.

"It's an organization we already have in effect. We're just trying to cover all the bases by putting together a liability agreement in case there ever is a lawsuit," said Antioch Fire Chief Dennis Volling.

Currently, firefighters from various departments throughout Lake County train for special rescues such as underwater rescue or a high-rise rescue.

The different rescue teams include the Hazardous Material response Team, Underwater Rescue, Below Ground Rescue, and High-Angle Response.

Volling said the Antioch Fire Department may call in the Hazardous Material Response Team to assist with a chemical spill from a capsized train derailment, for example.

"They're expensive units that no one department could afford on its own," Volling said of the specialized teams.

A new team is being formed which would respond to rescues at collapsed structures due to tornadoes or explosions.

A recent equipment purchase meant the Lake County Fire Chiefs Association took over buying, maintenance and operation of a van for the HAZ-MAT Team.

Since the non-profit professional association does not have limited liability that government bodies do, the insurance agreement was needed.

The fire chiefs association essentially wants to transfer the operations of the special teams to a new cooperative association.

Antioch trustees supported the agreement but delayed a formal vote on the agreement until the next board meeting.

Lake County vacancy on Aging Advisory Council

The Northeastern Illinois Area Agency on Aging is seeking a Lake County resident to represent Lake County as a volunteer on its Advisory council. The position is for a three-year term, until November, 1999. The primary qualifications required for this volunteer position are sincere interest in benefiting senior citizens and a desire to make the public aware of the services available to older persons.

Volunteers aged 60 and over are particularly encouraged to apply for these positions. Interested persons should contact Dawn Chapman, no later than August 1; write to P.O. Box 809, Kankakee, IL 60901; or phone (815) 939-0727 or (800) 528-2000.

The Northeastern Illinois Area Agency on Aging is a non-profit organization responsible for developing and coordination a network of services for older persons throughout an eight county area in northeastern Illinois. The Agency informs and advises public and private agencies and the general public of the needs of older persons living in the area, and acts as an advocate on their behalf. The Agency served DuPage, Grady, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall, Lake, McHenry and Will counties.

TOE LOCK

"Toe lock" sounds like something a professional wrestler would use on his opponent, but in reality it is a newly discovered cause of foot pain.

It can happen at any time while you are standing, may affect up to 70 percent of the adult population, and may be an important cause of joint stiffness in older persons. Toe lock can inhibit a person's normal gait, forcing the foot and leg to compensate, which often results in pain.

Toe lock lasts for less than 10 milliseconds, too quick for the naked eye—but not too quick for a computer. Using a computer, a New Hampshire study revealed instances of toe lock recorded in patients who wore mini-sensors on the bottoms of their feet during a normal day's activities, including jogging.

A check-up by your podiatrist may reveal whether unexplained foot pain is due to toe lock.

Olympic runner attracts record crowd to 5K race

Douglas Mouradian participated in the Run for Freedom race along with his son, Gary Mouradian. The presence of Olympian Frank Shorter greatly contributed to the success of the race.

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

More than 400 runners tried to keep pace with an Olympic gold medalist marathon runner during the second annual "Run For Freedom"—a few not only kept pace, but beat the world-class runner.

Marathon runner Frank Shorter, who won the gold medal in the 1972 Summer Games and a silver medal in the 1976 Summer Games, was the main attraction at the 5K run and walk sponsored by the State Bank of the Lakes.

A record 434 people signed up for the run and walk which meandered through the streets of Antioch.

"A lot of people came out just for Frank and to have the honor of running with him," noted Eric Olson, marketing representative for the bank.

Shorter gave a pre-run pep talk and signed autographs following the race.

"We heard a lot of positive comments about Frank," Olson said. "He was signing a lot of shirts, books and pictures."

Of course, the former Olympian took top honors in his age category (40-49) with a 17:24.1

Jeremy Arndt of Beach Park had the best time, however, with a 15:22.4. Jason Gantt of Grayslake was second with a 16:20.9 finish. The other top winners were Dave Bornhuetter of Kenosha, Kevin Mears of Grayslake and Paul Paynter of Arlington Heights.

Former Antioch Community High School track and cross country star Megan Durney was among the top five female leaders in the race.

"We were really happy with the turnout," Olson said. "Everybody had a good time."

Proceeds from race registration will be earmarked for future running trails in Antioch parks. "We don't keep a cent," Olson emphasized.

Following the race, Shorter departed to the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta to be a guest commentator for NBC during the Olympics.

"We're hoping he'll be back next year," Olson said.

Fear

conservation club opposes the use of the land for light industry. He said it would be "detrimental to the surrounding area and the Loon Lakes."

The property would abut NICC's 62-acre wetland, prairie and woodland preserve. "It's one of the prized wetland areas in the State of Illinois," Pientka said of the NICC preserves.

He fears the M-1 zoning would welcome a variety of businesses, such as rubber plants, sewage plants or battery factories, which could adversely affect the nearby preserves and water system that drains into the Loon Lakes.

"I'm very concerned," Pientka said.

As part of an annexation agreement with the landowner, Antioch Mayor Marilyn Shineflug indicated the village would have control over the type of industries that could set up shop there.

"Those types of plants would be definitely ruled out," Shineflug said of the industries Pientka fears. "I wouldn't want those types of industries anywhere in town."

When the village and landowner negotiate an annexation agreement, the village could put some conditions on the property, Shineflug said.

"The zoning is not in place yet," Shineflug said. The property is actually zoned agricultural in unincorporated Lake County, but the village's M-1 industrial zoning could have additional conditions when annexed.

"We would have the ability to prohibit certain types of industry that might pose a problem to its neighbors," Shineflug said.

She said the benefits of the industry park would be to increase the tax base for the village which would spread out the tax burden and create less of a dependence on property taxes. It would also create new jobs and provide tax revenues for the local school districts.

Cause

people Weber brought with him to Blarney's did not return with him or they swam ashore following the accident.

"Everyone has been accounted for. Where and what happened with everyone, we don't know at this time, but we are satisfied that everyone is accounted for," Del Re said.

In the meantime, investigators are examining lighting conditions and water conditions during the time of the accident to get a better idea of what caused the accidents. All the boats in the two accidents were believed to be traveling under the 25 mph night time speed limit.

"They're a little bit more involved than vehicular accidents," Del Re said. "We're proceeding carefully to adequately portray what happened."

Demo derby seeks drivers

Drivers are being sought to slug it out for the third Mini-Car Figure 8 Demolition Derby at the Lake County Fair.

Daredevils will master the curves of a track shaped in a figure 8. The race will show no-mercy—especially in the center of the figure 8 where competing cars will meet.

"To enter the event the car must be a 4-cylinder with a 104 inches wheel base or less," said George Sims, of Auto Race Promotions, Inc. The company has ran the Lake County event for the past 20 years. The edition of a concrete wall in the rodeo arena has made the compact car event possible.

Drivers must be 16 years or older to compete. Drivers under 18 years must have a parental consent form signed a Pit Gate.

Sims says the mini-car figure 8 event promises to be loud and exciting.

The Mini-Car Figure 8 Demolition Derby will be held Wednesday, July 24. Car check-in begins at 2 p.m. Any running car can complete in the event.

The Field is limited to first 36 cars.

Rules and entry blanks can be obtained from Mary Gunia at the Lake County Fair Office or by calling 223-2204.

—YOUTH BASEBALL—

Major League boys

Cubs 5, Giants 1

Highlights: The Cubs clinched the championship with a great performance by the whole team. Led by Charlie Trebing pitching a three hitter with 13 strikeouts and hitting a Home run out of the park in the first inning. Runs batted in by Alex Hofeldt and Ryan Callanan. Good hits by Kevin Kruthers and Frank Vanderwall. Solid defense by all players helped Cubs to the Championship. Rounding out the squad are Derek Witt, Ryan Tack, Jody Davis, Ben Newton, Jim O'Connell, Billy Merker and Joey Call. The Cubs finished out the season scoring 117 runs and allowing only 35 runs and finished with a 13-1 record.

AAA boys

Phillies 4, Cardinals 0

Highlights: Good pitching by Chris Sekany and Brandon Ziemann and key hits by Ryan Church and Seth McCrory. Phillies win the league with a 12 and 0 record for the Cardinals. Hits by Jeff Weber and Kyle White. Good defense by Rob Perrone.

Vikes gear up for another banner semi-pro year

All systems are go for the Lake County Vikings as another semi-pro season is about to begin.

Midway Jets provide the opposition for a 5 p.m. July 20 clash at Round Lake High. The game was originally set for Sunday, but the Jets asked the game to be changed. There will be no admission change for the game to be held at the field for practice adjacent to the football field.

"We have had an average of 38 guys here on average," coach Russ Kraly said Tuesday, the first night of hitting.

All told, some 75 football players age 18 and over are expected to seek positions with the Vikings, which are in their ninth year.

The coaching staff is almost all returning with an addition. Former player Joe Belcher will guide the special teams.

Adam Tesch is back to QB the Vikings'; multiple look. Brothers Walter and Luke are expected to be among the running backs vying for time. "Luke is in great shape," Kraly said.

Chris Jackson, a former Milwaukee Express player, Reggie Lawrence and John Rangel are also penned in as backfield potential.

"I want to be able to platoon our running backs this year," Kraly said.

Kraly was named coach-of-the-year in 1995 for guiding the Vikings to an 11-win season, the best in club history. Half the team was named all-MFL.

"We only had two injuries last year and they happened early in the season. If we stay healthy, we could go undefeated," Kraly said.

He is always quick to give credit to the players. "They did the job. The players make you look good. We tell them like it is. If they are good enough to start we tell them. If they are not, we tell them too. But we try and get everybody into the games," he said.

Other exhibition games are slated for July 27 against Windy City Rams and Aug. 3 against the Chicago Panthers. Both are 6 p.m. starts.

Then it begins for real Aug. 10 at 4 p.m. at Indiana Wolverines.

Midway Jets are the first regular season home game Aug. 17 at 6 p.m.

New or newly combined MFL teams are Springfield, Chicago Apaches, Indiana Wolverines and Hammond. Kraly said the change in teams is not unusual for the MFL.

But the Lake County Vikings have been a constant.

Antioch Waves Swim Team honors Berry with trophy

The Antioch Waves began a new tradition Sunday, July 7, in conjunction with the Zion Swim Team. In honor of Marty and Roy Berry, the Berry Traveling Trophy was initiated.

Marty Berry worked as Antioch Swim Team coach, plus diving coach, from the summer of 1969 through 1982. Her husband Roy Berry acted as an official for the meets, including judging the diving. They started the Antioch Invitational Swim Meet, originally held during the Farmer's Picnic. Antioch Waves won the Invitational many times. The Antioch Waves won Conference championship under the Berry's coaching.

After Conference the Berry's would take some Antioch swimmers, along with other swimmers from other conference teams, to the State Farm Bureau Sports Weekend in August. The Berry's then became active in the Zion Swim Team.

In honor of the Berry's dedication to winning and their years of support to the Antioch and Zion Swim Teams, the Antioch Waves instituted the Berry Traveling Trophy. While Antioch and Zion are in different swim conferences, each year for several years they have participated in a dual meet, with each team rotating as the host.

The winner of dual meet will have possession of the Berry Traveling Trophy. This year the trophy will be with the Zion Swim Team, as they won the dual meet 340-301.

Leading the Waves were the medley relay teams, including the 13-14 year old girls team of Katianna Pechauer, Christine Fusz, Heather Huotari, and Kimberly Meyer. Other top swimmers for the Waves in freestyle events were Steven Meyer, Lauren Popp, David Ano, Shayna York, Robert Eschbach, and Erin Riepe. Breast Stroke events were led by Peter Ihlen and Jennifer Watkins. Leading in butterfly events were David Vanderkooy and Stephanie Zerbst.

Shootout tourney builds prep hoop skills

STEVE PETERSON

Staff Reporter

The Crystal Lake South Shootout is a time when the organization and preparation for next winter begins to take on a more serious tone.

Take, for example, the Stevenson Patriots.

One of three area teams at the Crystal Lake South meet, the Pats were led by Sam Graves, a senior guard in each of the first two contests.

Graves scored 13 and 16 points in the first two games, as Stevenson split.

"We are improving a lot in most areas over last year. We do not have one superstar," SHS coach Ken Johnson said.

"I have been working on my shot. It was frustrating last year," Graves said. The point totals against Woodstock and in a loss to Fremd both topped last year's average.

Stevenson also had the shot-block ability of Brad Watson, another senior. "He showed how much potential he has," Graves said of Watson.

The Patriots held Woodstock to a 12-point first half. A group of juniors which include Tim Johnson, Evan Linderman, Darrin McMahon and Craig Lyrly led the way.

Lake Zurich, who ousted Stevenson in a regional final last year, got by first round Harlem 51-45. Robeson rallied in the final minute for a 51-50 win over the Bears. That contest featured the inside play of center Thor Solvorsen complimented by the outside threat of John Zitko.

"We see a lot of full-court man-to-man press - things we will see during the season," John Zarr, Bears coach, said.

Zarr likes the improvement of Solvorsen, the Bears center who helped the team gain a regional title last year. Solvorsen was just coming into the Lake Zurich fold at last year's Shootout after transferring from Elmwood Park.

"We will be a junior oriented team this year," Zarr said. Juniors to watch include guard Josh Hunter and swingman Mark Willis.

Antioch had a rough go of it at CL South, losing 69-33 to Batavia in the first round. The second game was a close one down to the wire, a 59-53 loss to Jacobs.

Taking in all the 62 games not involving his host Gators is Crystal Lake South coach Gary Collins.

"We had seven or eight other teams who wanted to get in. It's the volunteers that make this happen. We have five people at each court. That is what makes it a success. That, plus we have people like Bob Brown behind-the-scenes who assigns the referees," Collins said.

As Stevenson showed, it was not a three-day showboating tournament, although there was some fancy individual moves.

"You try and keep an eye out for that sort of thing, but we have pretty responsible kids," Johnson said.

Some 25 collegiate coaches were on hand the first day of the 32-team meet Friday.

One of them was Mike Zaworski, assistant coach for four-year College of St. Francis in Joliet. Warren High's Maurice Foster will be seeking playing time next year.

He is heading for a successful program. St. Francis, a member of the Chicago Collegiate Athletic Conference, made the national tournament the last three years in NAIA. "We would like to get down there and win a few games this year," he said.

Lindenhurst Fastpitch Softball to compete in Wisconsin tourney

The Lindenhurst Fastpitch Softball Program will be participating in the Third Annual Reedsburg Fastpitch Girl's Softball Tournament on July 19-20-21. All three Lindenhurst teams, the 18 and under Legend, the 16 and under Raiders and the 14 and under Bullets will be taking their winning records into competition with teams from throughout Illinois and Wisconsin in this three day event held near the Wisconsin Dells.

Heading into the final three weeks of the softball season, the Legend and the Raiders have already won tournaments within their age group and the Bullets are in first place in their conference with an undefeated record. The success of these teams is due largely to the commitment of the players, parents and coaches who have been practicing their skills since last October with weekly indoor sessions for pitching, fielding and hitting.

The Lindenhurst Fastpitch Softball Program, which is sponsored by the Lindenhurst Park District, is already beginning to make plans for next season and will be conducting their Fastpitch School on Thursday evenings and Saturday afternoons starting the first of October. Any player interested in trying out for next year's teams is encouraged to participate in the Fastpitch School. Tryouts will be held in early December or January. The Fastpitch Pitching School is open to all players regardless of team affiliation. For any additional information, contact program directors Mitch Kotlarz at 356-9547 or Steve Haenchen at 356-8813.

Lake Villa's Ringa places fifth in sailing regatta

The National Single-handed Championship Regatta for the one-design Butterfly sailboat was held on Long Lake with 25 boats competing. Lake Villa sailor R. J. Ringa III placed fifth in the event which featured Swiss Olympic Sailing Coach Jim Young.

The boat fleet hailed from mainly Midwest states, however, skippers from as far as Colorado and Texas were in attendance.

The five-race series saw extremely strong winds, which resulted in numerous capsizes and a few boats which lost their mast. Most of the boats were able to make needed repairs and continue the sailing competition.

The final results saw the first place ending in a tie between Jim Young of Tabernash, Col., and Eric Faust of Austin, Texas. The third place winner was Bruce Faust of Irving, Texas. Fourth place was awarded to Stewart Fitzgibbon of Wooster, Ohio. R.J. Ringa III of Lake Villa captured fifth place.

Regatta coordinator Robyn Ringa said the field welcomed Jim Young, the Olympic Sailing coach for the Swiss team, to the event.

"We were extremely pleased that Jim took the time to come from Atlanta and postpone his busy schedule for the upcoming Olympics and participate in the regatta," Ringa said.

The National Double-handed Regatta is scheduled for late July in Crystal Lake, Mich.

Adaptive sports team gains national acclaim

The Lake County Adaptive Sports Program (LCASP), a cooperative extension of the Special Recreation Association of Central Lake County, competed in the National Junior Wheelchair Championships in Birmingham, Alabama from June 22-30.

Lake County Adaptive Sports, under the team name Rollin' Thunder, was selected as this year's competitions Best Overall Small Team. Coaches, Jackie Peiper and Kelly Loth were extremely excited as this is only the second year Rollin' Thunder has competed in the national championships.

Participating athletes had qualified at regional meets to be eligible to compete in this prestigious national competition.

Connection helps Chiefs win tourney

The Lake County Chiefs baseball team of 14-year-olds kept their winning streak alive by winning the championship of the Mid-Summer Classic in Wisconsin.

The Chiefs, a Riverwoods-based team, downed the Waukegan Travelers, Orland Sparks, Carol Stream Renegades, and a Rockford team.

In the opening game, it was the Lake County Chiefs downing Waukegan 16-2. Winning pitcher was Mac Mansavage of Riverwoods who went 2 innings, allowed 2 hits, one run, had 3 strikeouts and 2 walks. Mike Crane of Lake Zurich finished the game on the mound. He pitched 3 innings of hitless baseball, had 5 strikeouts and 2 walks. He also helped on offense, with a 3-of-4 with an RBI. Dave Villalobos of Waukegan was 2-of-4 with 2 RBIs; Austin Turner of Buffalo Grove had a hit and an RBI and Mike Bruszer of Deerfield was 2-of-2 with 2 RBIs.

The Chiefs outlasted Orland Park 13-7 in game two. Rocky DiSilvestro of Niles was the winning pitcher. In two and one-third inning, he scattered 7 hits, 6 runs and had 2 strikeouts and 3 walks. The save goes to Bruszer, who had 2 strikeouts and no walks. Mansavage was 2-of-3 with 3 RBIs; Turner 1-of-1 with an RBI; Mike Parilla of Park Ridge was 1-of-1 with 2 RBIs; Bruszer 1-of-3 with an RBI and DiSilvestro helped his own cause by going 2-of-2 with 2 RBIs.

The Chiefs shutout Carol Stream 10-0. Mansavage gained the win as he went 4 innings in a 2-hitter. He struckout 3 and had a walk. Mike Duszak of Chicago came in relief with an inning, 1 hit and a strikeout and no walks. Big bats belonged to Crane with a 2-of-3 day with 3 RBIs; Jamie Jankowski, also of Lake Zurich, was 2-of-2 with 1 RBI; Ed Matsumoto of Chicago was 1-of-3 with 2 RBIs.

The Chiefs then took the title home with a 7-0 rain shortened win over the Brass Whistle of Rockford. Crane was 1-of-1; Duszak was 2-of-2 with an RBI; John Glatt of Riverwoods was 2-of-2 with 2 RBIs and Matsumoto was 1-of-1 with 2 RBIs.

The Chiefs now prepare for their USABA World Series in Canada.

The 11-year-old Chiefs came in third in their Mid-Summer Classic tourney. The 12-year old Chiefs, coached by Dave Wieder, had their title game with Palatine suspended by rain.

The Chiefs 11-year-olds downed Lake Villa and Rich Township before beating Greendale Playmakers for third place.

The 12-year old team worked its way to the title with wins over Orland Sparks, Algonquin and Niles. The 11 and 12-year olds compete in a tournament in Genoa City, Wis. this weekend. Both teams are preparing for national tournaments - the 11-year olds at Bountiful, Utah and the 12-year olds at Mesquite, Nevada.

The 12-year-olds are still looking for a few pitchers to complete their staff. If you are a pitcher and want to play some more baseball, contact Lake County Baseball at 945-9606. A team of 10-year-olds is now forming.

Deadly

following a fatal accident involving a motorcycle, a van and a car. The two teens on the motorcycle stopped at the green light at Rte. 59 to wait for traffic to clear before making a left turn onto Grass Lake Road. The van driver struck the motorcycle from behind and sent it into a car traveling in the opposite lane.

While it was the first fatal accident in more than six years, the intersection still attracts its fair share of accidents—on a weekly basis.

And as Les Swieca of IDOT noted, it's the number of accidents and rate of accidents that may be more important than the severity of accidents.

"It's the conflict that we worry about," said Swieca, IDOT program director. "We look at the moveability and maneuverability in the intersection. We look for patterns that can be corrected."

Citing current traffic patterns and the expected growth in the area, Churchill is adamant about
turn, right turn and straight lanes in all directions of the intersection.
Currently, IDOT only has plans for left turn lanes in all directions.

"If we're going to do the intersection, I think it would be short-sighted if we didn't include right turn lanes in each direction," Churchill told Swieca via a conference call.

Although the engineering of the intersection is currently being studied, Swieca said two forthcoming steps could delay the whole process even longer.

The land around a former gas station that used to stand on the southeast corner requires an environmental study to determine possible contamination. There may be old storage gas tanks still underground, which may have leaked and contaminated the soil.

"We have to study all the potential environmental hazards," Swieca said. The more problems
IDOT finds around the former gas station, the longer it will take to clean the area prior to improving the intersection.

"That could knock the project back two years," Churchill warned.

Following the environmental study and any necessary clean-up, IDOT can begin the process to acquire the land needed for the right-of-way of the intersection.
Depending on the cooperation of the property owners, the land acquisition process could be a lengthy process in itself.

"The two things that will speed the whole process is: The lack of hazardous material at the former gas station and if the adjoining property owners work together with the state and the county to buy the right of way," Churchill said.

One of the more important factors in favor of the project is the funding is available to improve the intersection. Churchill noted that IDOT began doing the preliminary engineering on site before the state included the intersection as part of its five-year highway improvement program.

"We have funding in place for it," Churchill said. "The money is there to pay for it."

In the meantime, IDOT engineers and officials continue with the step-by-step process to improve the intersection at Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Road.

"We will do whatever we can to expedite the process," Swieca said at Churchill's request.

Accident should not discourage boaters

53-year resident says mandatory education necessary for boaters

RUTH SUTTON
Correspondent

The man who has probably helped with more boating accidents than anyone else on the Chain of Lakes wants to reassure the public that boating is still safe, as long as safety measures are observed.

Pete Jakstas of Mineola Marine, Inc., Fox Lake, has lived here 53 years and been in the boat business for 43 years. He also has been on the rescue squad as well as helping the sheriff's department in these situations for many years.

Jakstas admitted he finally got back home at 3 a.m. Friday after helping with his equipment at both boat crashes on the Chain. He said the fatal accident on Nippersink Lake occurred midway between Leisure Point and the Aquarium Lounge.

One boat was a Baja, approximately 24-ft long. The one that hit it was a Sea Ray of 25 ft., he estimated.

Both were planing boats, and both were on full plane when the accident occurred, Jakstas said. He added that the boats can do this at 25 mph, which has been the legal speed limit on the Chain after sunset for many years.

'The Chain is very safe... There are many more deaths and accidents with cars than there are with the boats.'

—Pete Jakstas, Mineola Marine

After talking with boaters over the weekend, Jakstas expressed concern the news reports are scaring everyone. He explained, "What the general public and media don't understand: The media make it sound like a land accident and then it becomes just unreal. Water accidents are different," he pointed out.

"Accidents on the Chain happen rarely, and the media flock out with TV cameras and helicopters and scare everybody that boating on the Chain is unsafe and dangerous.

"More people have been killed at Rte. 41 and Clavey Rd. than on the Chain, but an accident there is usually passed over in a day — rarely are there helicopters and not many TV cameras are at the scene.

"Terrible as it is, they get used to it, because people die on the highways every day. Highway accidents, rollovers, etc. rarely have TV cameras on them. But if there's a snowmobile accident or boat accident, all the TV stations and cameras are out here. It's not fair."

"The Chain is very safe: There are 24,000 boats registered on the Chain. If you put 24,000 cars on the same number of square miles of surface area, you will see that See ACCIDENT page B10

Crash survivor: Alcohol not involved

Three killed, 7 injured in two Chain O' Lakes accidents

TINA L. SWIECH
Staff Reporter

Wakes and funerals were held over the weekend for the three victims of a boating disaster that shook the Chain O' Lakes.

After leaving the popular Thursday night boat races at Blarney's Island, located in the middle of Grass Lake in Antioch, a 24-foot Baja motor boat left the scene with five people on board.

The craft was owned and operated by Johnsburg resident Arnold "Dick" Carlson, 56, an avid boater who was well-known on the Chain. His son Chris, 28, of Arlington Heights and another passenger Renee Roman, 25, of Wonder Lake were both killed along with the driver when another boat dubbed "Nighthawk" smashed into the side of the vessel July 11 on the waters of Nippersink Lake.

Two men on Carlson's boat survived the crash—Robert "Bob" Heaney, 55, of Fox Lake and Michael Nank, 31, of McHenry.

Joseph Remke, 27, of Marengo was operating Nighthawk, a 24-foot cabin cruiser. On board with him were passengers James Garrelts, 27, of Wonder Lake; and Peter Huinkler, 26, of McHenry.

According to reports, Remke told Lake County Sheriff's police he was traveling at the 25 mph speed limit and simply didn't see Carlson's boat.

Heaney said he was standing at the front of Carlson's vessel looking out the windshield when suddenly the impact occurred. "I didn't see the boat, I didn't hear it. I thought either the boat blew up, or we hit something submerged," said Heaney. "For[all] of us not to see the boat coming at us, is unusual," he added.

Heaney stresses Carlson hadn't been impaired the night of the accident.

Chain accidents raise boating safety issues

KEVIN HANRAHAN
Staff Reporter

Boat responsibly.

Just as in driving, that seems to be the prevailing theme emanating from the Lake County Sheriff's Department following two boating accidents on the Chain of Lakes.

In two separate boating accidents July 11, three people are now dead and seven others were injured.

Dead are Arnold Carlson, 56, of McHenry, Chris Carlson, 28, of Arlington Heights, and Renee Roman, 25, of Wonder Lake. Their boat collided with another boat near the Route 12 bridge. Two other passengers in the boat were injured as were three people from the other boat.

In the other accident on the same night, David Weber, 26, of Fox Lake, faces charges of operating a boat under the influence of alcohol after his boat struck another in a channel that links Grass, Fox and Nippersink lakes.

Under Sheriff Gary Del Re said Charles Dalenberg of Palatine tried to avoid Weber's vessel. Investigators are still trying to reconstruct the accidents to determine causes.

Both accidents heightened boating safety issues on the Chain, which boasts more than 25,000 registered boaters who enjoy 6,800 acres of waterways just on the Lake County side of the Chain.

"In my view, the best thing to do to reduce the potential for accidents is to reduce the amount of alcohol consumption. More than half the accidents are alcohol related," Del Re said. "Boating and drinking do not mix."

As part of its enforcement efforts, the Lake County Marine Patrol boards 25 boats a day for safety inspections. Police check for proper functioning lights, engines and if life preservers are on board. They also may question the condition of the boat driver.

While open alcohol is permitted on boats, boat operators are subject to the same driving-under-the-influence laws as motorists.

"There's less probable cause to board a boat than to search an automobile," Del Re noted. "We do take very seriously driving under the influence laws."

While the seven inland units of the Lake County Marine Patrol cannot be at all places at all times, Del Re said the department's combined enforcement efforts and message of responsible boating is making headway.

In 1994, 22 OUIs were issued to boat operators. In 1995, the number of boating under the influence violations dropped to seven. Del Re credited more awareness and designated boaters as possible reasons for the drop.

"We hope the message is getting out to designate a sober boat operator," Del Re said. "The waterways belong to sober, safe boaters."

Judy Martini, a county board member from Antioch, feels more can be done to ensure the safety of the waterways. She drafted a Waterway Safety Reform bill which State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion) sponsored and will present it for public hearings this fall.

"Some of the laws are obvious," Martini said. "When you have locals who are afraid to go out on the Chain on weekends, that should tell you something."

Parts of her Water Safety Reform include:

- Boating privileges would be suspended if a person's driver's license was suspended for driving under the influence of alcohol. "We need to take drunk drivers off of our highways and our waterways," Martini said.

- Children under 13 would be required to See SAFETY page B2

Grayslake biker aids crash victims

TINA L. SWIECH

Staff Reporter

"You don't know who I am, and I didn't know your son, but he died in my arms," Gary Weir told Juanita and Paul Waszak at the wake.

Weir, 20, is a Grayslake resident who never gave a second thought to putting his CPR (Cardiopulmonary resuscitation) training to good use.

While on his way to a friend's house with two other buddies July 6, the three came upon a serious accident which happened just a minute or two before. Police or rescue hadn't even arrived yet.

The whole ordeal was strange, said Weir. For some reason, he decided at the last minute not to ride his Yamaha 750 motorcycle that night, and opted to ride in the car with his friends Carl Lewis of Wildwood and Matt Wallace of Gurnee. The three also took an entirely different route to their other friend's house that night.

When the group pulled up to the intersection at Grass Lake Road and Route 59, it was hard to focus on one thing.

"When I saw the motorcycle, I knew I had to stop," explained Weir.

The two victims were laying nearby. Weir said while two women, reportedly a nurse and a pediatrician, worked to revive the girl, later identified as 17-year-old Chaneice Cermak, he immediately headed over to the young man.

One of the men with him began to pray, while the other was in shock over seeing the accident. Weir started to help by using what he was taught in school.

"I didn't know what I was doing, but it was like adrenaline took over," said Weir. Everything he learned in his CPR class at Carthage College in Kenosha, came back to him.

Weir checked the pulse on 19-year-old Paul Waszak Jr., and found he was still alive, though unconscious. His pulse was weak, and getting weaker, Weir began CPR.

All the while a nearby van which was involved in the accident was on its side, its motor turning over and over. Gasoline was spilling out on the roadway.

Realizing they had lost their battle with trying to save Cermak, the two women headed to the site of the young man. Weir quickly went to the van and pulled the battery cables out to stop it from leaking out gasoline.

Weir said when he told the parents of the young man what happened, they told him they were glad their son didn't die alone.

"I just wish I knew the names of the nurse and pediatrician lady," said Weir. He explained he wants to thank them and talk with them about what happened that night.

Both Cermak and Waszak were residents of Antioch.

Weir is majoring in Exercise/ Sports Science and has just begun semi-pro football on the Lake County Vikings football team.

The student said while he remains extra cautious now, he will continue to ride his motorcycle and is in fact planning to purchase a new one.

Allen Otto, 52, of Elburn, Ill. was charged with failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

A trust fund has been established to help the families defray the cost of funeral expenses. Those interested in contributing should contact the First National Bank in Antioch.

Within the five hour period they were at Blarney's Island, Heaney said both men drank a total of two beers on the pier while visiting with friends. Neither men purchased alcohol inside the bar, he said.

To clear up any rumors floating around, Heaney made a proposal. "I'll give anyone $25,000 if they can prove we were there (at Blarney's) getting drunk, or stopped anywhere to get gas," he stated. Apparently there has been talk the two were seen at the 100 Club near Bauske's Boat Basin before the accident.

Heaney is hopeful after investigators piece together the damage caused to Carlson's boat, the speed Remke was traveling could be determined.

Survivors of the Fox Lake accident were treated and released.

The irony to the twisted disaster is that Roman, a single mother of two, had arrived at Blarney Island with another man, David Weber, involved in a different accident just two hours later on Grass Lake.

After the second accident, Weber was found face down in the water. He was charged with operating the boat under the influence, and careless operation of a boat.

He was listed in fair condition at Northern Illinois Medical Center as of Tuesday.

Authorities thought others may have been missing from Weber's boat, and divers continued to search the following day. However those sought had come forward later.

wear a flotation device while on the open haul. "They (flotation devices) don't work if you don't wear them," Martini said. "This teaches kids at a young age to wear them."

• People who rent boats must take a mini-course on the rules of the waterways. "It's important that people know how to operate a boat and know the rules of the waterways."

• A "buffer zone" would prohibit vessels from coming within 150 feet of each other. Martini said the buffer zone aims to prohibit wave runners from jumping the wakes of cruisers. Wisconsin has a similar law.

She also supports boat licensing in which boaters would have to pass safety and rules tests much like drivers have to pass rules of the road tests to obtain a driver's license. Alabama and Indiana have enacted similar license laws for boaters last year.

"If you know the rules of boating, the test is a snap," said Bill Garner of the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources.

"We did notice more awareness of boater safety since enacting the new law," Garner said. "It was very well received here, and we haven't noticed any indication that fewer people are buying boats or fewer people are boating."

State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) said he respects the rights of recreational boating but would investigate boat licensing.

"I am open to recommendations," Churchill said. "It's something we have to take a look at."

Teen robber sought

FOX LAKE—Police have released a sketch of the alleged robber who knocked down an elderly woman and grabbed her purse late last month.

On June 21, the victim, a 90-year-old resident of Lakeland Senior Apartments was on her way home from her weekly bingo games at the Lions Club on South and Marvin Streets. While walking to her apartment, the woman was knocked over as a young male suddenly took her bag and then left the scene on a bicycle.

Alleged robber

The victim crawled on her hands and knees to a nearby auto where she was able to pull herself up and get help from neighbors. The subject being sought is described as between 17 and 20 years of age; from 140 to 150 pounds and 5 foot 8 inches to 5 foot 10 inches. He was wearing a black baseball cap, no shirt and a pair of shorts. The suspect was also riding a newer white and chrome mountain bike.

Call the Fox Lake Police with any information at (847) 587-3100.—STAFF REPORT

Recycling facility in Grayslake

GRAYSLAKE—A vacant parcel of land approximately 75 acres in size, located at Route 83 and Peterson Road has been annexed into the Village of Grayslake.

The land will be the location of a Waste Management Intermediate Processing Facility (IPF) for recyclable materials, built on approximately eight acres. According to Grayslake Mayor Pat Carey, the village annexed the land to control the use of the remaining land not developed for the IPF.—by ELIZABETH EAKEN

Taxpayer rebate studied

GURNEE—Gurnee homeowners deserve a break and if village trustees agree, they may very well be in line for one.

Mayor Richard Welton is proposing a tax break for the homeowners. He suggested a 10 percent rate at a village board meeting, but that could be adjusted. Trustees approved having Gurnee Administrator James Hayner and his staff research the matter.

"We would study it before we go into the next budget cycle. It could be a significant rebate," Welton said.—by STEVE PETERSON

Alpine Fest back again

LAKE ZURICH—This weekend marks the continuing tradition of the Alpine Fest started by Lake Zurich

Lions Club members more than 50 years ago.

The Alpine Fest is always known as the place to be the third week of July, where families and neighbors can get together in the outside air and enjoy themselves.

This year's Fest will feature much of the same as in years past, including bands, carnival rides, bingo, the Alpine Diner and the Beer Garden. A grand parade stretching 90-minutes long will kick off Sunday's festivities at 12:30 p.m., featuring community groups and every imaginable shrunken mode of transportation, from Mini-T's and big wheel bicycles to motorcycles and mini jet airplanes.

Alpine Fest will be held at Lion Fred Blau Park, 83 E. Main St., on Route 22, one mile east of Route 12, on July 19 from 6 p.m. to midnight, on July 20 from 1 to 4:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. to midnight, and July 21 from 12:30 to 11 p.m.—by SPENCER SCHEIN

Orchard's owner shows art

WAUCONDA—Richard Breeden might be better known throughout the community for owning the Wauconda Orchards, but he is starting to make a new name for himself as burgeoning artist.

For the past 10 years Breeden, 80, has taken paint brush to canvas when not watering or orchestrating the planting of apple trees. For him, painting not only acts as an expression, but as a release.

"I have always had 'nervous hands,' and I like to do things with my hands," said Breeden, during an interview at the Wauconda Orchards Country Stores restaurant.

Through the month of July, the public can view 19 paintings out of Breeden's collection in the gallery of the Wauconda Area Public Library, 801 N. Main St. Breeden is the featured artist this month, and will add a number of porcelain paintings on July 20.—by SPENCER SCHEIN

Stevenson principal resigns

LINCOLNSHIRE—Stevenson High School Principal Dr. Timothy Berkey resigned from his position at one of Lake County's premier high schools. Citing family reasons, Berkey will become principal of Perry High School in Perry, Ohio. Dan Galloway, Stevenson's associate principal, was named as Berkey's successor.

Berkey, 44, joined Stevenson as principal in 1991, and helped lead the school through one its most productive periods. During his tenure, Stevenson students set new school records in college entrance and achievement exams, Advanced Placement participation and classroom grades. He was instrumental in the school's $25 million expansion which includes the latest technology and a state-of-the-art swimming pool and performing arts center.

Superintendent Dr. Richard DuFour praised Berkey's tenure at SHS. "This district owes a great debt to Dr. Berkey for his leadership and vision, and for making a major contribution to helping Stevenson become one of the premier high schools in America," DuFour said.—by KEVIN HANRAHAN

Intersection work takes time

ANTIOCH—Engineers from the Illinois Department of Transportation began preliminary work to improve the intersection at Route 59 and Grass Lake Road over a year ago. The heavily congested intersection claimed the lives of two Antioch teens during the July 4 holiday weekend.

State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) inquired about the immediate status of the intersection. IDOT officials said the process to improve the intersection is a long, step-by-step process which could take up to five years before construction begins. Churchill noted that state funding is already in place to improve the intersection. He demanded separate left turn, right turn, and straight turn lanes in every direction of the intersection.

"Unfortunately, we can't go out and build an intersection tomorrow. There's a process, and it takes time to complete," said Churchill, who is demanding IDOT officials to expedite the process as much as possible.—by KEVIN HANRAHAN

Annexation verdict in

MUNDELEIN—The village won the first round in a land dispute with Vernon Hills. The village attorney happily announced a favorable decision in the lawsuit over the annexation of Mundelein's water treatment plant, located on the Cuneo property. Previously unincorporated, the parcel was quickly annexed by Mundelein when it became evident that Vernon Hills was planning a forcible annexation the following day.

Dancers to the rescue

LAKE VILLA—The Lake Villa Rescue Squad's annual "Dancing in the Street" fund raiser kicks-off July 20.

Founded in 1956, the Lake Villa Rescue Squad has been successfully serving the people of Lake Villa for 40 years without charging residents. The officers are paid on call and are strictly volunteer. Lake Villa and Antioch have the only two volunteer squads in Lake County. Admittance to the event is free. The money raised from the raffle and the food profits will go to benefit the Lake Villa Rescue Squad for advanced life support equipment, training, and towards the future purchase of a new ambulance.

The dance will take place in front of the old Rescue Station, 223 Lake Street, Lake Villa and will begin at 8:00 p.m. The music will be provided by "M-Raid City" and food and drinks will be prepared by the rescue squad members.—by AMANDA MILLER

Firefighter Awareness Day brings past, present together

SPENCER SCHEIN

Staff Reporter

The history of fighting fires in America shows the changes that have been made through the years, following changes made throughout society.

For instance, having firefighters ride on the tailboards seems like an ancient practice, with all the dangers it has with firefighters riding out in the open, yet it was only put out of practice in the mid-1980s, said Lt. William Hoover, of the Wauconda Fire Department.

These and other interesting facts can be found at Firefighter Awareness Day, held from 1 to 4 p.m. July 21 at the Lakewood Forest Preserve near Wauconda.

The annual day is co-sponsored by the Lake County Museum and the Wauconda Fire Department, and is one where the past and present collide, giving a view of how fires are fought and rescues are made today, and how they were earlier this century.

"This is set for the entire family to come out to learn what the fire service is all about and see some of the new equipment," said Hoover.

Showing this will be both historic and modern fire engines from fire departments all over Lake County. Fire safety presentations will be given, along with equipment demonstrations, a dive rescue demonstration and a technical rescue demonstration, where a rappelling firefighter will rescue another firefighter dangling from a rope.

The Northern Illinois Medical Center Flight For Life Helicopter will make also landing.

A number of fire departments will send both antique and modern engines and equipment, as well as representatives to speak and answer questions.

Among those participating include Libertyville, Round Lake, Countryside, Nunda, Bonniebrook and Waukegan.

Wauconda will have its 1932 Pirsch fire engine on display. Back in '32, the fire department paid $1,500 for the engine, Hoover said. A comparable engine would cost approximately $200,000 today.

Several privately owned engines and ambulances will also be on display.

Last year, Stacey Pyne, curator of education at the museum, thought she knew what attracted people to Firefighter Awareness Day.

"A lot of the public is interested in fire departments," Pyne said. "I think firefighters tend to be heroes and the general society looks up to them."

The museum will also have its "Medical Milestones" exhibits on display.

There is no charge to see the engines or equipment on display outside the museum. Admission to the museum is $2.50 for adults and $1 for youths 4- to 18-years-old.

Lakewood is located on Route 176, west of Fairfield Road.

Logo mess looms as Depke legacy

There's a lot that can be said about the new county logo. Costly. Pretty. Wasteful. Silly. Meaningless. Stupid. Slick. Political. Professional. Ugh! Oh? Hmmm.

Whatever, the six-pointed star with three diamond-like projections each of sky blue and forest green (blue for our lakes, green for our forests. Get it?) is destined to become a defining point of the high-riding, but soon to be ending administration of Lake County's most powerful county board chairman in history, Bob Depke.

Considering cost alone, the charge of $104,000 for design and a manual for implementation will be small compared to the expense of reprinting stationery, repainting squad cars and other vehicles and redoing scores of signs is minimal. Debate over whether the new logo conveys the proper symbolism is meaningless. Logos by their very nature are meant to convey a variety of responses.

Depke detractors are having a field day with the logo, calling it everything from a snowflake to a gang symbol. Wagsters even have suggested that adoption might even trigger a legal challenge from athiest gadfly Robert Sherman because it resembles a religious symbol. We'll see.

What is deeply troubling about the logo fiasco is that the design process first was crammed down the throats of county board members, then introduced in a semi-secret atmosphere, finally to be presented for adoption in an arm-twisting, threatening manner. Vintage Depke all the way.

We've had our ups and downs with Chairman Depke, mostly down in recent years. It has to be recognized, though, that the rough and tumble political leader from Warren Township has left an imprint on Lake County like no other leader before him. It will be profoundly sad if Bob Depke is remembered for his logo than his other attainments, albeit controversial accomplishments.

Debate on mobiles can't dent lobby

A recent exchange of letters to the editor on this page demonstrated how difficult it is to take sides in the long-standing controversy over real estate tax policy for mobile homes.

Donald Smith, a member of the Mundelein High School board of education, pointed out that mobile home owners pay a token tax collected by the state to reside in a home that has the amenities and space of a conventional home that might produce $4,000 to $5,000 to support schools and local government.

Smith probably used the wrong example when he cited Saddlebrook Farms, a senior citizen development with upscale mobile homes at Peterson Rd. and Rte. 60 that lies within the municipal boundaries of Round Lake Park and is served by Fremont Consolidated Grade School and Mundelein High School.

Saddlebrook Farms is no ordinary "trailer park." Homes on ample lots are good-sized. The place is landscaped like a country club. A resident quickly took issue with Smith, pointing out that there are no school age children in the development. Saddlebrook has its own water and sewer system. Residents pay for garbage and snow removal. Residents spend a lot of money with local merchants and they pay their share of sales tax.

Public officials who complain about mobile homes are wasting their breath. The powerful mobile home lobby has been able to fend off efforts for years to extract more tax money from the mobiles. For all intensive purposes, politicians have given up attempting to level the playing field because the courts have ruled that the field already is level.

Gangs making suburbs part of their territory

BILL SCHROEDER

More and more suburban police departments are adding gang specialists. One of them is Sgt. Mike Boykin.

The husky ex-Chicagoan is a walking storehouse of one of the most misunderstood problems in law enforcement, the ever-present and growing influence of gangs.

Boykin, who used to spend eight hours a day "living" with gang members when he was a Lake County corrections officer, peppered a group of retired executives with a fast-flowing stream of gang facts and figures.

"No community is immune to gangs," Boykin related. "We're encountering more transients," stated the Grayslake officer who is certified to train other law enforcement officers in dealing with gangs.

"Don't fall for the line about gang wannabees," Boykin advised. They're on their way to becoming "will bees." It was surprising to learn that there are gang members as young as eight. Upper age range is 55. The majority to today's gangs don't restrict membership to one ethnic group. "They don't care about race. All they want is the money coming in," the gang expert stated.

Boykin said Illinois correctional institutions are run by gang members. Gang leaders are smart, bold and clever, even to the extent of taking advantage of tax laws to gain exempt status. "That means we're all subsidizing a certain amount of gang activity," Boykin emphasized.

Police officers in our town never know when they'll come face to face with a gang banger. It's good to know that they're learning more all the time about what makes those scumbags tick.

BERRY TIME—Pretty much on time, wild black berries are ripening. You can find them along fence lines and in the forest preserves. No chemicals. Just berry goodness. Great on ice cream, cereal or just pick and eat. Wild black berries are a Lake County specialty.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—Summer is sports time for the grandchildren. Erika is taking swimming lessons and had her first horseback ride (with mom's firm hand of support). John always is ready for a boat ride, even putting up with a cumbersome flotation jacket in good spirits.

LETTERS TO THE Editor

Place children first

Editor:

I am wondering why the Round Lake School Board has given their administrators a 5 percent raise. It was my understanding that the money from the referendums was to be spent educating our children in the Round Lake District, not filling the wallets of the school administrators. I feel, with our districts troubled financial state in mind, the board should have voted against any raises and should have placed the children first. I hope the Round Lake Area residents realize where the Round Lake School Board places our children on their list of priorities.

I am also wondering what does superintendent, Mary Davis do that is so deserving of a salary of $103,541 each year, in addition to a yearly raise of over $5,000? My husband and I are struggling to raise our family on half what Mary Davis makes each year. However her salary is coming from our tax dollars. My husband is a lieutenant on a fire department and he puts his life on the line every day of work. I don't think Mary Davis' job is half as dangerous as his, yet she is making over twice as much as he does.

Give wildlife a brake

Editor:

I have noticed many more victims of the floods, and those are our little friends, the turtles.

As runaway, rampant development of more and more land in our beautiful Lake County continues, and as wetlands are filled in to make room for more houses, turtles are flushed out of their homes and chased onto the highways, only to be squashed by fast moving cars and trucks whose drivers either fail to see them, or just don't care enough to avoid hitting them.

I have picked up so many turtles in the roads near my home, that I've lost count. One had been hit by a car, but I was able to get him to a Wildlife Rehab. Center in Wonder Lake, where a kind veterinarian was able to repair his cracked shell. He is expected to make a full recovery. See LETTERS page B5

-PARTY LINES-

Stern, Matijevich will be honorary chairman of Link campaign

Party Lines, the Lakeland Newspapers column of political commentary, is prepared from staff reports.

Former State Senator and County Clerk Grace Mary Stern and former State Representative John Matijevich of North Chicago, have agreed to serve as honorary co-chairman for Democratic Chairman Terry Link's state senate campaign.

Stern

Matijevich

Link faces GOP State Rep. Tom Lachner in the Dist. 30 race. The seat is currently held by retiring Republican David Barkhausen.

GOP Golf—County-wide GOP candidates are welcome golfers with open arms to the 1996 Lake County Republican county-wide candidates Robert Neal—candidate for Recorder of Deeds, Circuit Court Clerk Sally Richardson Coffelt, State's Attorney Michael Waller and Coroner Barbara Richardson will be welcoming guest.

The event takes place at Countryside

Golf Course in Mundelein, July 24 with two shot-gun starts at 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. Both the scramble and general format will be used.

A cocktail reception follows at 5:30 p.m. with a steak/chicken fry dinner beginning at 6:30 p.m.

For more information call Republican headquarters at 680-6680.

Senate run—Party Lines' downstate operatives report Gov. Jim Edgar is giving more than passing interest to taking on Sen. Carol Moseley-Braun in 1998. Edgar not only thinks Moseley-Braun is venerable, but he'd like to try new political waters—like the U.S. Senate. Only one drawback. First Lady Brenda is not enchanted at all with her husband breaking new political trails. She's concerned with his history of health problems.

Forgotten—Remember him? That's the treatment being given Lt. Gov. Bob Kustra these days after his defeat for the Republican nomination for the U.S. Senate. Even his friends, Party Lines was told, consider him a "loser." Kustra has two years to serve in the No. 2 spot.

Problem bulldozed—Former Zion Mayor Billy McCullough is sharing the spotlight with School Supt. Barbara Christiansen in sparking a redevelopment project to get rid of 14 crime-infested townhouse buildings. Mayor Chuck Paxton believes savings in police protection will be a big step in covering the $1.3 million tab for demolition that will be covered by a two-year tax hike. Zion residents are solidly behind efforts to get rid of the eyesores, even if it hits them in the pocketbook.

Prefer upscale—Waukegan is continuing to put the brakes on apartments to pave the way for upscale residential development. Stanley Paul of the Development Commission put city feelings in focus when the commission rejected 19 buildings with 16 units each on a 23-acre parcel off O'Blaine Rd. Waukegan would like "a little better area," Paul said of the site owned by St. Demetrius Church. The land currently is used once-a-year for a Greek festival.

Compliments—West Lake County environmentalists and advocates of controlled growth are directing compliments toward county board members who are showing newfound interest in development west of Rte. 45.

Most notably, County Board Reps. Pam Newton (R-Vernon Hills) Carol Spielman and Bob Buhai, both Democrats from Highland Park, have been receiving plaudits.

Watching their backs—Hawthorn Woods officials are keeping a close eye on the happenings in a neighboring community. Village trustees continued their July 15 board meeting in order to attend the North Barrington Plan Commission meeting, to hear initial plans of a large-scale mall proposed at Route 12 and Old McHenry Road. The trustees, who were among 700

Newton

Spielman

people who filled the auditorium of Barrington High School, reconvened the meeting the next evening.

No reply necessary—Lake Zurich Mayor Deborah A. Vasels did not answer a request to alter her column which appears in the village's monthly newsletter. Trustee Jim Weakly asked her to consider adding a statement that the views in her column did not reflect the board's views after he Vasels received a couple of telephone calls in that regard.

The mayor's column gives updates on village accomplishments and improvements being done on behalf of the village board.

Dam-it anyway—A Chain O' Lakes physician brought a presentation to Monday night's village board meeting in Fox Lake, regarding expansion of his senior apartment complex. But before he could speak, Mayor Ken Hamsher asked the doctor to state his name and address for the audience. Dr. William Dam obliged, but not without chuckles from the board. Dam is well-known in town, and was the mayor of Fox Lake from 1985 to 1989.

Spiritual fitness workout—Chicago Bears Head Coach Dave Wannstedt—less than a week before the fall football training session opens in Platteville, Wis., joined forces with Catholic bishops and priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago to challenge Catholic men of all ages to get into "spiritual shape" through the first-ever "spiritual fitness workout." The event was held in Niles, July 13.

My urgent plea is for everyone to please be on the lookout for these unfortunates. If you are squeamish about picking them up, please steer clear of them so they can safely cross the road. What appears to be a dollop of dirt in the middle of the road may truly be a terrified terapin. For that matter, be observant for all the animals who wander onto our highways.

Please, give them a brake.

Is spraying worth it?

Editor:

Before residents of Round Lake Beach insist that the village spray the air with pesticide in an attempt to control mosquitoes, they need information about possible drawbacks. The label for the spray currently in use, MosquitoMist One, says the active ingredient is chlorpyrifos, and organophosphate pesticide. A section of the label reads, "Caution: Harmful if swallowed, absorbed through the skin, or inhaled. Avoid contact with skin, eyes, or clothing. Avoid breathing spray mist." The label also says, "This product is toxic to fish, birds and other wildlife." Consumers should be aware that federal regulations prohibit manufacturers of pesticides from claiming their products are safe (as in benign), due to potential problems associated with their use.

A better alternative involves eliminating mosquito breeding sites and continuing or expanding the current larviciding program. Recently, a majority of village board members said residents have asked for spraying and they intend to follow the advice of the company by continuing to adulticide.

We know alternatives can be successful. Round Lake Beach did not adulticide from 1986 through 1992. They used BTI, a biological control larvicide, even during the "big flood of '86". They also relied on individual efforts. Warren Township recently did a survey of 18 townships in Lake County and learned only 3 spray for mosquitoes. Warren Township is not spraying for mosquitoes this year. Lindenhurst has not budgeted for mosquito control in the past five years. Antioch hasn't adulticided since the mid-1980s because they feel it's not effective.

It's important to ask why neighboring communities have made these choices. Residents need to encourage the board to make an informed decision that causes the least negative impact.

Prairie restoration worthwhile

Editor:

In response to some criticism of restoring prairies in Lake County, I've been a forest preserve volunteer for seven years and the results of restoration are outstanding.

Endangered species are returning and the preserves never looked better. But what about the alternative of letting nature take its course? Seems reasonable since human activity causes most of our environmental troubles, but does nature really work anymore?

Before settlement, animals, insects and plant seeds had plenty of space to move around.

Today our preserves are islands surrounded by roads and subdivisions, cutting apart what nature's all about, relationships between living things.

Native plants no longer have the benefit of prairie fires, grazing elk or bison. And wetlands have been changed from years of fertilizer use, sedimentation and draining by farms and developments.

Nature is weakened, creating the perfect opportunity for diseases in the form of aggressive non-native plants like buckthorn and purple loosestrife to finish off all but a fraction of the original species. So ironically, leaving nature alone really means standing by while it dies a slow death.

Like surgery, restoration can seem extreme but its goal is conservative, to allow all species a reasonable chance to survive. But perhaps the most exciting aspect is that anyone can volunteer and participate in nature, reestablishing a long dormant connection to the earth that we never lost.

Visiting places under restoration (such as Illinois Beach, Grant Forest Preserve of Glacial Park) where you can gather in the changing colors, textures and smells, is an unforgettable experience.

'NO' doesn't faze county

Editor:

It has been over a year since the Illinois Department of Natural Resources denied the county's application for the extension of Yorkhouse Road through the Wadsworth Wetlands Demonstration Project. It showed great thoughtfulness on the part of the IDNR to look at the issue closely, to make a decision based on facts, and not simply to succumb to political pressure.

The county doesn't seem to understand "no", however, and filed again for the conversion of the parcel of land purchased with federal money. The redone application includes an extensive "analysis" of the environmental impacts of the road—that with the illogic typical of the current board, focuses only on the four acres involved in the transfer, not the effect of bisecting a 550 acre project. It also includes legal arguments as to the appropriateness of the IDNR's decision.

The facts haven't changed. The proposed extension of Yorkhouse Road will bisect a 550 acre forest preserve that is home to the successful Wadsworth Wetlands Demonstration Project. Nine endangered or threatened species have been seen nesting and/or foraging on the site. The recreational value of the trails and the entire site would be significantly reduced by the intrusion of a road. The proposed 3/4 mile extension will cost $12 million ($3,000 per foot) out of a total $26 million county budget that has to support 270 miles of road! The road is not wanted by residents across the county. The county's reports show no need.

Fortunately for us, public opinion still counts with the Illinois Department of Natural Resources. Your letters to Brent Manning, Director, 524 S. Second St. Springfield, Ill. 62701, will show that we still care. Urge the IDNR to deny the application for the extension of Yorkhouse Road.

Experts recommend easing into the heat

As we age, our bodies become less able to respond to long exposure to heat. During the hot, humid weather common to northern Illinois' late summers, a buildup of body heat can cause a person to have heat exhaustion or even heat stroke.

"While everyone should take precautions during the hot weather, people with heart disease, circulatory disease, diabetes or who have had a stroke are more likely candidates for heat-related illness," said Betsy Schwartz, R.N., director of nursing at Victory Lakes Continuing Care Center, Lindenhurst.

Two common heat-related illnesses are heat exhaustion and heat stroke. Heat exhaustion results from a loss of body water and salt and the symptoms generally include general weakness, heavy sweating, nausea and lightheadedness. Much more serious is heat stroke.

"Heat stroke is a medical emergency and requires immediate medical treatment," said Schwartz.

Symptoms of heat stroke include faintness, dizziness, headache, nausea, loss of consciousness, rapid heart beat, flushed skin and a body temperature of 105 degrees or more.

The best precaution against heat-related illnesses is to remain indoors in an air conditioned room. If your home isn't air conditioned, open windows and a fan can help circulate air. Also, the basement level of a home is usually 10 degrees cooler than the main floor. Or, you may choose to spend the hottest part of the day in a cool public place like the library or a shopping mall.

Other recommendations for staying cool during hot weather include: Stay out of the direct sunlight and avoid strenuous activity; Wear lightweight, light-colored clothing that fits loosely and permits body moisture to evaporate; Drink plenty of liquids, including eight glasses of water, each day. Avoid alcoholic beverages and foods and drinks that contain high levels of salt; Take a cool bath or shower.

"Surviving the heat sometimes takes more than trying to find a cool breeze. Someone experiencing signs of heat illness, such as nausea, dizziness and fatigue, should call their doctor or the emergency squad for assistance," said Schwartz.

Shelter and medical society offer hotline

A Safe Place/Lake County Crisis Center and the Lake County Medical Society have teamed up to put domestic violence crisis line information at every woman's fingertips.

Through their innovative Hotline Awareness Project, the two groups will distribute a supply of special business cards and holders to all Lake County physician offices. The cards list the crisis line number at A Safe Place and outline the services the agency offers to women and children who are victims of domestic abuse. It is hoped that physicians will display the card holders in their offices—preferably in discreet locations such as exam rooms or washrooms—where women can privately take a card for future action.

The project grew out of the mini-internship program sponsored by the Medical Society to expose community leaders from organizations and businesses throughout Lake County to the realities of the medical profession.

Phyllis DeMott, executive director of A Safe Place, participated last fall as an intern and was inspired to seek a way to educate women through their doctors' offices about the services of A Safe Place. The Medical Society responded with enthusiasm and is co-funding the Hotline Awareness Project.

"Not only do they see the effects of physical abuse, but their patients trust and confide in them. We want to give the physicians a ready resource to refer these women for counseling and assistance."

A Safe Place is the only shelter in Lake, McHenry and northern Cook counties for abused women and their children. In addition to a 30 bed shelter, the agency offers a 24 hour crisis line, individual and group counseling, and weekly support groups in Vernon Hills, Deerfield and Round Lake for victims of physical, emotional and psychological abuse. Staff and volunteers from A Safe Place maintain an office at the Lake County Courthouse in Waukegan to assist women seeking orders of protection and pursuing legal action against their abusers. Educational programs regarding domestic violence are provided by A Safe Place for police departments and community groups throughout the agency's service area.

For further information about the services and programs of A Safe Place or the Hotline Awareness Project, call 249-5147.

Program helps cancer patients look good and feel even better

The Breast Center of Highland Park will offer the American Cancer Society's "Look Good . . . Feel Better" program to all female cancer patients. This free program teaches patients beauty techniques to help enhance their appearance and self-image during chemotherapy and radiation treatments.

With the help of trained professionals, women will learn techniques that best disguise the effects of cancer treatments, from hair loss to nail care. Each participant will receive a variety of cosmetics donated by local distributors.

Programs are scheduled for Aug. 26, Sept. 30 and Oct. 28. Registration is required; call 480-2650.

Dr. Claire Callan, president of the Lake County Medical Society, and Dr. James L. Milam, chairman of the society's healthcare foundation, join Safe Place Executive Director Phyllis A. DeMott in announcing the joint Hotline Awareness Project.

Doctors take patient rights fight to Internet

A new site on the World Wide Web will allow Illinois patients to express support for the Managed Care Patient Rights Act and join their doctors in the fight for patient rights.

At <http://www.isms.org> patients can discuss their experiences with managed care, read about the Act, and ask their state legislators to support it, according to Illinois State Medical Society President Sandra F. Olson, M.D.

"The end of the recent legislative session really marks the beginning of the next phase of our fight for patient rights," said Dr. Olson. "This year we introduced lawmakers to the issue of patient rights in managed care and even achieved protection for the rights of a limited group of patients: new mothers and their babies."

"The next step is to enlist our patients into the fight. The web site will facilitate communication between patients, doctors and legislators, and help build the case for assuring that managed care plans respect patient rights," Dr. Olson continued.

"We are prepared to fight for patient rights through the coming election, into the next General Assembly session and until we get it done," said Dr. Olson. "We encourage everyone who expects high quality care from their managed care plan to visit our web site and join the fight for patient rights."

Hospital names services directors

Paul Drake has been named Director Support Services at Good Shepherd Hospital.

Drake

In this position, Drake will be responsible for directing, coordinating and managing the operational activities, administrative functions and personnel of housekeeping and food and nutrition departments of the hospital to ensure that customer needs are met in the most effective and economical way.

Drake joined Advocate Health Care five years ago as the environmental services and linen manager at Good Samaritan Hospital, Downers Grove.

He holds a bachelor of science degree in law enforcement from Northeastern University. He and his wife, Sue, have three children and live in Carol Stream, where he is active in baseball, basketball and golf.

Helen Giblin has been appointed to the position of Clinical Director and Supervisor of Surgical Services.

Giblin will be responsible for directing, planning and managing the day-to-day operations of the Surgery, Sterile Processing, Post Anesthesia Care Unit (PACU), day surgery and the Endoscopy and Minor Surgery Departments. Giblin has previously served as interim director of the unit.

Prior to coming to Good Shepherd, Giblin worked as a Manager of the Operating/Anesthesia Departments and Manager of Finance and Information Systems for Surgical Services at Good Samaritan Hospital, Downers Grove.

A graduate of St. John's Hospital School of Nursing, she received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Aurora University and is currently working on her Master's in Business Administration at North Central College.

The chefs are coming to Midlane

It's not uncommon for Chef John Warren of Wadsworth to think "food." That's his business. But when Barbara Donaldson of Zion and Jan Knobbe of Beach Park start thinking about food with him, it just might result in a fantastic culinary experience. And, that's what is happening this year.

Warren, Donaldson and Knobbe are chairmen for the 16th Annual Chef Cuisine Benefit sponsored by the Victory Hospital Foundation. The "taste of" style experience is scheduled from 3 to 7 p.m. on Sunday, September 29, at Midlane Country Club, Wadsworth.

The benefit will feature delightful menu selections from dozens of Lake County's favorite restaurants. Current plans also include a visit by celebrity chef Wolfgang Puck (of Spago's fame) who will share some of his "trade secrets" and sign autographs. There will be cake decorating demonstrations and golf enthusiasts and novices alike will enjoy taking part in the "Chef Cuisine" putting contest.

Tickets are $25 in advance, $30 at the door. You are also invited to be a patron of Chef Cuisine by making a donation of $125. This donation includes two tickets to the 16th Annual Chef Cuisine Benefit and a listing in the program. Proceeds from this event will benefit Lake County's HealthReach Clinic.

CLC plans summer blood drive July 31

The College of Lake County health center, in cooperation with LifeSource, will sponsor a summer blood drive from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on July 31 in the Brandel Court at the Grayslake campus, 19351 W. Washington St.

Donors must be 17 years or older, weigh at least 110 pounds and be in good health. Donors will receive a mini-physical that includes blood pressure check and iron level count, and have a chance to win a weekend trip for two to New Orleans.

The blood drive will be conducted on a walk-in basis; however, priority appointments may be scheduled by calling the CLC health center at 223-6601, ext. 2274.

Chef Cuisine benefit chairmen Barbara Donaldson of Zion and Jan Knobbe of Beach Park confer with chef John Warren of Wadsworth and assistant chef Al Esler of Waukegan on the tasty event.

BRIEFS

Hospital hosts blood drive

Good Shepherd Hospital will host a community blood drive sponsored by LifeSource from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. July 22 in the Lakeview room. Willing donors, even if they are not accepted, will be eligible to win a trip to two to New Orleans. Walk-ins are welcome but appointments can be scheduled by calling 1-800-323-8622.

Saint Therese tea

The auxiliary of Saint Therese Medical Center will sponsor its annual membership tea beginning at 2:30 p.m. July 23 in the private dining room. Guests are encouraged to wear their favorite hats. The auxiliary provides volunteers, funding and community outreach. To sign up, call the auxiliary office at 360-2230.

Conference on breast cancer

Y-ME and Boston Market will present "Breast Cancer and the Family," a special conference on the psychosocial aspects of breast cancer Aug. 1 and 2 at the Hotel Nikko in Chicago. Topics include genetic testing, communication with spouses and children, and legal issues. For more information call Kristina Pavlou at 312-986-8338.

Drug trials show success

Norvir™, a protease inhibitor used in combination with other medications, has demonstrated potent antiviral activity against the AIDS virus after 60 weeks of treatment. The drug was cleared to marketing in the United States March 1.

Eye seminars offer information

Ophthalmologist Mark Buranosky of Premier Eye Care & Surgery will present two free seminars on the use of the Excimer laser for vision correction. Good Shepherd Hospital in Barrington will host the first seminar, set for 7 p.m. July 23. The second will be at 7 p.m. July 30 at the Grove Medical Center in Long Grove. Reservations are requested; call 634-3937.

Home & Garden

Small garden— Big ideas

I was commissioned to do a site inventory/analyze along with some preliminary sketches of a 20-acre resort in Roatan, Honduras. After returning from the resort, I got to thinking how every little corner/space was used around the buildings and resort areas. These small gardens had to be viewed year round and therefore were filled with different colors, textures and shapes.

These gardens definitely caused emotions to stir and made my eyes dance across the plantings as the sun and winds created shadows, adding yet another dimension to the garden.

As I thought about these gardens and viewed them on my camcorder at the office, I began to develop an idea for these type of gardens for our growing area.

A small garden that could be viewed year round and emit emotions from ones heart and soul.

Too many times our landscapes look barren from December until April, and this does not have to be.

Enjoy Elizabethan drama on the green at Barat College

The Fifth Annual "Shakespeare On The Green" festival held in residence at Barat College will present William Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" on the lawn under the stars at 8 p.m. nightly on Friday, July 19, Saturday, July 20 and Sunday, July 21, Thursday, July 25, Friday, July 26, Saturday, July 27 and Sunday, July 18.

Music and an early evening picnic with food and spirits from area restaurants will precede the nightly performances at 6 p.m. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. A large grassy area in front of the stage is reserved for blankets, with lawn-chair seating located immediately behind. Admittance to the festival and parking are free.

The City of Lake Forest brought considerable recognition to Shakespeare on the Green last year when former Mayor Rhett W. Butler declared an annual "Shakespeare Week" in Lake Forest in recognition of the festival's culture, quality and service to the community. This year's Shakespeare Week runs from July 19 to July 28.

"Romeo and Juliet" will be seen from a new perspective in this year's production, which is set in 1930's Italy. Living in a patriarchal society, Juliet is the daughter of a powerful and influential man. Expected to marry a man chosen by her father, Juliet shatters the mold of the voiceless female by revolting against societal expectations and taking control of her own existence. Hence, this tale of romantic tragedy begins.

Shakespeare on the Green boasts a cast of professional actors drawn from the metropolitan Chicagoland area. There will be some familiar faces in the cast returning from the previous productions including: Shannon Morris of Northbrook as Juliet, and Jason Long of Chicago as Montague. New to the festival this year are Jeff Goldman of Chicago as Romeo, Robert Johansen of Chicago as Friar Laurence, Ammar Daralseh of Chicago as Capulet, Stephanie Ferrell of Chicago as Lady Capulet, Betsey Means of Chicago as the Nurse, Matthew Fahey of Oak Park as Tybalt, Kevin Heckman of Chicago as Benvolio, Melissa Carlson of Chicago as Lady Montague, and Scott Parkinson of Chicago as Mercutio.

Returning from past festivals are Artistic Director Karla Koskiesen from Waukegan, Producer JoAnne Zielinski from Golf and Managing Director Steve Carmichael from Wilmette.

Shakespeare on the Green is made possible through funding from corporate sponsorship, contributions at the festival, a raffle and the Friends of Shakespeare. The Friends of Shakespeare was established to develop financial support from individual donors. Committee Co-chairs Charlotte Flanagan and Judy Janowiak have planned an enchanting evening for this year's Opening Night Gala, which will include a buffet supper, pre-show entertainment and preferred seating for the performance. Any member of the community who contributes $150 or more to the event will be invited to bring a guest and participate in these festivities. Attendees at the opening night performance will be invited to "Make a Bid for the Bard," a silent auction with proceeds going to support the festival's operating budget.

For more information on Shakespeare on the Green, please call JoAnne Zielinski at 295-2620.

Modern mailboxes reflect personalities, interests

Correspondent

Putting your personal stamp on your curblin mailbox can add zip to your ZIP code. And the decorator mailbox is a boon to postal workers as well, according to Lake Zurich Postmaster Nancy Moore. "It's a nice welcome change," she said, "and everyone appreciates that."

An adorable trio of critter mailboxes in Diamond Lake.

But Moore and other Lake County postal officials caution customers that, whether their box is fanciful or merely functional, it must conform to United States Postal Service regulations.

"If we cannot provide adequate security for the mail, we hold it until the structure is improved," said Val Sendor, Supervisor of Customer Services at the Buffalo Grove Post Office.

To ensure that the mail gets through, owners of curblin or so-called rural mailboxes should, above all, keep their mailboxes unobstructed and in good repair. Mail carriers can't service a box that's inaccessible or on its last leg. The box should also be large enough to accommodate the amount of mail the customer expects to receive, Moore said, and have an opening that's big enough to handle a bundle of mail. Slots are too small, she said. Curblin mailboxes should also have a solid working door that rural route carriers can operate efficiently from their vehicles. Moore said that rural mailboxes, most of which are located on public roadsides, should also be watertight and rustproof and in line with height and setback standards.

To be on the safe side when selecting a mailbox, Moore said customers should look for the words "Approved by Postmaster General" stamped onto the door of the box.

"The U.S. Postal Service actually licenses companies to manufacture mailboxes," she said. The new molded heavy-duty plastic rural mailbox, sold at most hardware stores, is "excellent" she said. Though its practical design defies any personal touches, it can withstand a brush with a snowplow or baseball bat.

Support systems for curblin mailboxes are a separate matter. State and local laws govern their construction, said Dan Clements, mail carrier and acting Supervisor of Customer Service at the Lake Zurich Post Office.

Stephanie, 4, and Jeffrey Kushnir, 7, show off the wooden duck mailbox handcrafted by their grandpa Ron Anderson of Buffalo Grove. The box meets post office regulations.

A good example of a mailbox on its last legs in rural Lake County. The post office can refuse delivery to a box which is not serviceable.

County residents plan journey to the Olympics

AMANDA MILLER
Staff Reporter

Months or even years of planning go into seeing an event like the Olympics.

For some Lake County residents the trip is worth the money and the time and all of the planning. Several families from Lake County have saved and planned to make the trip to Atlanta for the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.

Michael Francis of Round Lake Beach started planning his trip later than most people do. About two and a half months ago, Francis got tickets for the games. His connection was through he Dial Cooperation where he currently works.

"I'm going for the whole Olympic experience, the international flavor, and I'd like to see the city of Atlanta," he explained.

Francis is going to see cycling, track and field, volleyball and rafting.

He is flying south for a stay of six days, July 24-30. While he is there he is going to stay with his brother who lives in Atlanta.

Staying with a relative is a lucky break because it is hard to get a hotel room even near Atlanta at such a late date.

Kurt Rohlwing of Wauconda is also staying with a relative in the Atlanta area. He is going to the games with his girlfriend and staying with his second cousin.

Unlike Francis, Rohlwing has been planning his trip for years. He sent in his form for tickets directly to the Olympic committee more than a year ago. Ever since he heard the Olympic Games were coming to Atlanta back in 1992, he has had arrangements with his cousin for a place to stay.

"I'm a sports lover and it's a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity," he explained.

Rohlwing's trip will last 10 days from July 22- August 1, including two days of car travel. He is driving the long trek in one day, to be sure not to miss anything in Atlanta. Once he is there, Rohlwing will be experiencing the events of track and field, basketball, baseball, volleyball, handball, field hockey and possibly more.

"I want to try to get wrestling tickets while I am down there," he said.

Mark and Erica Bonovitz of Lindenhurst are going with their father Rick and his wife Elizabeth who are from Hinsdale.

The Bonovitzes, like Rohlwing, have been planning their trip for a year, starting when they faxed their order for tickets to the Olympic Committee. They are driving down in one day and have planned their stay from July 25- August 3.

The Bonovitzes tried to get a hotel through the Olympic Committee, and found it wasn't right for their needs.

"Getting a hotel through the Olympic Committee took too much time and they reserved the rooms in blocks of three days at a time. It just didn't work out for our schedule because we would be paying money for two days that we wouldn't even be there," explained Mark.

They ended up calling non-Olympic certified hotels in the area and managed to get a room for the days they were going to be there.

While they are in Atlanta the Bonovitzes are going to see soccer, tennis, men's field hockey, basketball, women's track and field and the equestrian show jumping semi-finals as well as other equestrian events.

"Historically the games have been a peaceful way of getting cultures to interact... personally, it's a once-in-a-lifetime experience just to be there and see people from all around the world," stated Mark.

Special safety gear needed

"The big problem now that really should scare people is the new wave runners" (the little scooter type craft), warned Pete Jakstas of Mineola Marine and Hotel.

"The new ones will go 65-to-70 mph. But no one mentions that the life jackets they wear are only rated by the Coast Guard for up to 50 mph — and the jacket would probably disintegrate if it hit the water traveling at 70 mph. You must go to a specialized type of racing life jacket.

"You also should wear goggles. At those speeds the wind pressure begins pushing the skin backward on the face, pulling the eyelids down so that vision is impaired tremendously.

"They also require special training. I've raced boats for many years, but I do not consider myself qualified to drive one of those little wave runners," Jakstas concluded.

—by RUTH SUTTON

Accident

there are many more deaths and accidents with cars than there are with boats. At no given time are all of them (boats or cars) out there.

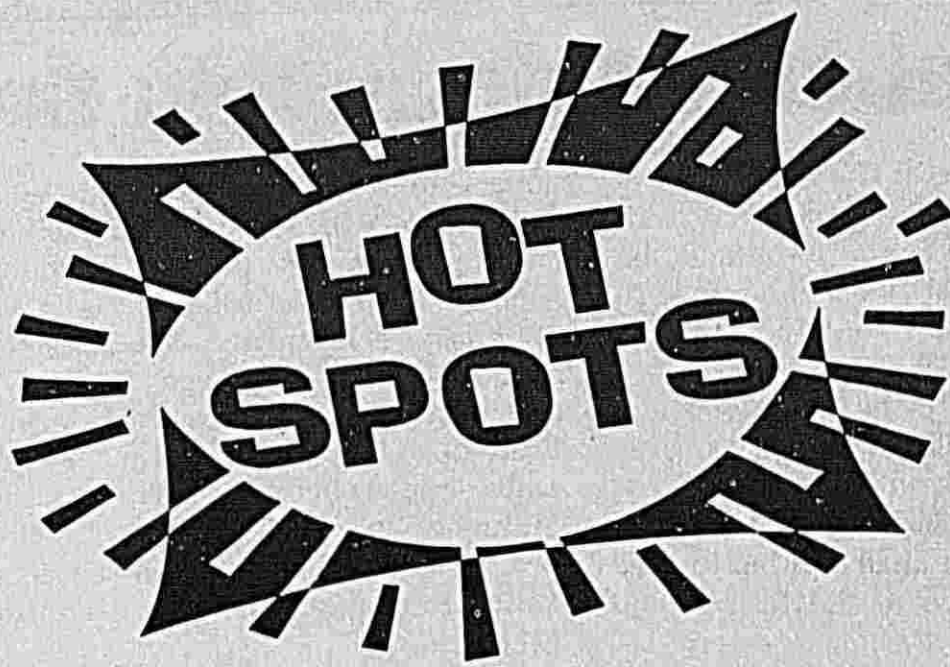

"We don't need more laws. We just need more money for more patrols out here to enforce the laws and regulations we already have. Because some people make mistakes, there's no point in punishing everybody.

"A perfect example was this accident (on Nippersink Lake) where people were killed. One of the boats was probably exceeding the 25 mph speed limit the chain has had after sunset for many years. This is a different aspect and a different way of looking at what has taken place."

Jakstas commented, "I'm not through with my own personal investigation because I'm curious about what actually took place. Every time we have an accident out here, I want to find out what happened so we can educate the people on how to make it safer.

"Boating is very complicated now," Jakstas explained, "It used to be simple with only a few kinds of boats. Now there are many different designs, different shapes of the boat bottoms and the way they travel through the water. There are too many different styles of boats and type of water craft now.

"Thus, it would be impossible to license boaters. But one possibility is mandatory education — to require a boat course certificate to own a boat," he suggested.

Silo, famous for pizza & more

Pizza is among the top five favorite food items ordered in restaurants, and the best place in Lake County for pizza is the Silo, located at 625 Rockland Rd., Rte. 176, in Lake Bluff. This is not only the opinion of The Silo's many repeat customers, accolades from the North Shore Magazine and the Chicago Tribune add to the Silo's reputation for serving the "best pizza" around.

The Silo, in business for 28 years, is owned by Pat and Larry Tarman and Sandy and Larry Pike, who strive to make the restaurant's country atmosphere, comfortable and inviting. The quality service customers find at The Silo is friendly, fast but relaxed, and courteous.

Enjoy a before or after dinner drink at The Silo's full-service bar and, as long as the weather permits, outside dining on The Silo's deck is a popular way to enjoy a pan pizza, a thin crust pizza, a delectable Supreme Pizza, a Vegetarian Soufflé, a scrumptious Cheeseless Cajun Chicken Pizza, a Seafood Pizza, a delicious Cheeseless Fresh Vegetable Pizza, a Taco Pizza, or any of the many other pizza's on the menu, especially the old favorites topped with cheese, sausage and/or pepperoni.

The Silo is also known for its many fine dinner entrees, such as succulent baby back ribs, a variety of appetite pleasing chicken breast dishes, homemade lasagna, several kinds of pasta, baked potatoes served with very special toppings, a wide choice of tasty sandwiches, and gourmet salads. Heart Healthy dishes are also offered.

The Hayloft is the perfect place to celebrate a special event. Parties of up to 150 people can be accommodated. On Sunday, Tom "Boz" the Magician entertains children of all ages from 5 to 8 p.m.

Keep on learning this summer in forest preserve

Bring out the budding naturalist in your children at the summer youth nature programs offered by the Lake County Forest Preserves.

Children ages 7 to 10 will enjoy becoming time-travelers and discovering the secret ingredients that make a healthy habitat at Eco-Adventures. Children learn first-hand how to apply their new knowledge to habitats in their own backyards.

Eco-Adventure sessions are available: July 22-25 from 1 to 3 p.m. at Grant Woods and July 22-25 from 9 to 11 a.m. at Van Patten Woods. Cost is $35 ($25 for Lake County residents).

Children may also discover the mysteries and magic of life in the forest, fields and ponds at two Nature Explorer sessions from July 23-26 from 9 to 11 a.m. at Ryerson Woods near Deerfield and July 29-Aug. 1 from 9 to 11 a.m. at Old School Forest Preserve near Libertyville.

Reservations and prepayment are required for both programs. For more information call 948-7750.

CLC presents summer children's theatre

Three children's plays will come alive at the College of Lake County as the student activities office represents summer children's theater. The series includes "The Prince Who Wouldn't Talk" on July 25 and "Pinocchio" Aug. 8. All performances will be held at 1 and 7 p.m. in the CLC auditorium, 19351 W. Washington St. Grayslake.

The summer children's theatre series is co-sponsored by the Waukegan Park District's Bowen Park Theatre. Tickets are $3 for each performance. Advance ticket purchase is recommended as the series usually sells out. Payments may be made by Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express.

For tickets, call the box office at 223-6601, ext. 2300 or stop in room C-101.

The Second City announces opening of children's show

The Second City has opened its new children's show, "A Tale of Two Kiddies."

"Tale" is the story of adventures and misadventures of two children who discover that you can't judge a book by its cover—literally—as they embark on a mysterious journey through a magical library. Throughout their escapades, they also find that with imagination, "fun" can be found in the strangest places... incorporating Second City brand humor, "Tale" features songs and improvisations designed to amuse kids of all ages.

For ticket information and reservations (312) 337-3992.

Summer movie camp offered at Lakehurst

General Cinema at Lakehurst Mall will begin a summertime weekly film and fun fest every Wednesday. The festival will be held at 10 a.m. and noon and includes movie popcorn and Pepsi for $2.50.

Scheduled movies are: July 24- Gordy; July 31- The Indian in the Cupboard.

For more information call 473-4201.

Bicycle adventure of a lifetime

by JIM WARREN, PRESIDENT, NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Interested in a 38-mile bicycle tour? How about we make this trip in Hawaii. Let's add one more feature particularly appealing to an aging baby boomer like myself. It's all downhill!

This little trip is known as Cruiser Bob's Haleakala Downhill, and begins at the summit of the Haleakala crater at 10,023 ft. on the island of Maui and ends at the beach in Paia at sea level. It is an adventure that you will remember for a lifetime.

Bob offers two departures. The one I would recommend is the sunrise trip. Just seeing the sunrise from the summit of Haleakala is worth the trip, and that's just the beginning. You are picked up from your hotel at 3 a.m. (Think of it as 8 a.m. Central Standard Time) You're driven to the crater's summit on the same road you will bicycle down so you will become familiar with the roadway and terrain. You get breakfast on the summit and watch the sunrise.

You then begin the 38-mile downhill adventure. You will experience all of Maui's beauty, from lunar-like volcanic terrain, tropical jungles and waterfalls to white sand beaches. You are accompanied by two professionally trained escorts, a tour cruise leader and escort van driver. The tour leader is in constant radio communication with the van. You will be traveling at about 15 miles per hour and will be allowed plenty of stops for picture taking and refreshments. A picnic lunch is also included.

You will be riding a specially designed bicycle with brakes that could stop a Sherman tank. The ride doesn't take much physical effort, yet it is still not for someone who has not been on a bike before. While there is no age requirement, you must be over 5 feet tall and not pregnant. Obviously, anyone with a medical condition impairing their ability at high elevations should not take the trip.

Temperatures can be 35 to 40 degrees at the summit, so warm clothing is recommended, as are glasses and closed-toe rubber soled shoes.

The total trip takes about 8 hours. While the '95 price tag may seem a little high, it's an adventure you will be telling your grandchildren about.

-CRITIC'S CHOICE-

Seven Brides dance up a storm

"Seven Brides for Seven Brothers," way up there on the cornball scale, manages to delight in spite of itself.

Written by Stephen Vincent Benet, with music by Gene de Paul and lyrics by Johnny Mercer, this musical features the world's speediest courtship (less than five minutes) and the politically incorrect song "A Woman Ought to Know Her Place."

As directed by Marc Robin at Drury Lane in Oakbrook Terrace, "Seven Brides" is a fast-paced, entertaining song-and-dance spectacle.

Set in the Oregon Territory during the 1850s, the story features Adam, a rough-cut frontiersman who decides the time has come to find a wife, which he does with dispatch. But Millie, the waitress he brings back to the homestead as his bride, gets more than she bargained for.

Millie soon polishes the rough edges of the other six Pontabee brothers—almost enough to get them through their first town social unscathed. Later, hankering for female company, these lovable lunkheads kidnap their would-be mates.

The leads feature Susan Moniz, as the indomitable bride and Larry Susan Moniz and Larry Adams in "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" at Drury Lane in Oakbrook Terrace.

Adams as her unlightened husband who finally comes to understand there's more to marriage than a contract.

Thomas Murray provides impeccable musical direction, and Caryn Weglarz has come up with some appealing costumes. While the cast excels in the many dance numbers, it does need to work on making its stage punches look more realistic in the fight scenes.

"Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" runs through Aug. 18. Ticket information is available at 708/530-0111.—by TOM WITOM

Mike and Mike to bowl strikes

Mike Ditka will serve as honorary chairman and The Score's Mike North will serve as emcee of the 4th annual "Joe Marconi Celebrity Pro-Am Bowling Tournament," "Strikes Against Leukemia" Saturday, August 10, at Hawthorn Lanes, 316 Center Drive in Vernon Hills. # The Abear family is going to the dogs

It has been two years since our last less-than-heartwarming experience as dog owners, and I figure that is enough time for my husband to quit gloating and saying "I told you so!" We have almost replenished our underwear supply, chewed door trim has been replaced and most of the spots are out of the carpet. Those lingering nightmares of "Corky the devil dog" have nearly disappeared. So what does this mean? It means hold on to your pooper-scooper — it's "DOG-GIE TIME!"

A campaign has recently been underway in our house for a four-legged, tail wagging, barking bundle of what most of us hope will be "joy". My husband represents the only dissenting vote, since all of the children and me are in favor of getting a dog. OK, one of my sons did agree with my husband, but I sent him off to college in Washington state (and voting by proxy is not allowed.)

As the sole "Nodogger" in a family of "Doggees", my husband has been subjected to a great deal of lobbying. We began quietly, by showing him cute dog pictures, and then we brought him to a pet show "just to look". Next, we hired 2 1/2 year old Samantha to perform a little rap song whenever she sees her father - "I want a doggee! Yes! I want a doggee!"

DONNA ABEAR

Yes! I want a doggee! Yes! I want... We even held a debate on the issues:

HIS OPINION: "We have a pet already. A cat."

MAJORITY OPINION: "Yes, and he's a sweet cat, but every time we throw a frisbee to him, he ducks."

HIS OPINION: "We'll be tied down with a dog."

MAJORITY OPINION: "Yeah, right. Like we're not tied down with four kids."

HIS OPINION: "What about chewing, and housebreaking?"

MAJORITY OPINION: "We're way ahead of you. We'll get a used dog."

HIS OPINION: "Who will do the poop-scooping?"

SPLIT OPINIONS: "Mom!" "The kids!"

HIS OPINION: "How can you be sure this dog will be better than the last one?"

MAJORITY OPINION: "We won't name it after your mother."

HIS OPINION: "It doesn't really matter how I feel about this, does it?"

MAJORITY OPINION: "Of course it does! And if you really don't want a dog, all you have to do is tell the kids."

It was at that point that 7 year old Brandon, a particularly shrewd campaigner who specializes in reverse psychology, delivered the winning blow to his father's objections. With the most pitiful expression he could possibly muster, and a voice that quivered more convincingly than Bill Clinton's did when he admitted his transgressions with Gennifer Flowers, little Brandon looked at his father and said, "You don't want a dog, do you Dad? I guess if you don't want a dog, then we won't get one, right Dad?"

I've got to hand it to the kid. He's good. So what does this mean for my husband and his wish to remain "dogless"?

It means it's all over but the barking.

Six Flags Great America's Grand Music Hall Stage is ready for Ice Review

Daring lifts, rapid spins, and an amazing back-flip combined with the grace, beauty, drama and excitement of figure skating bring a new twist to America's favorite Broadway shows at Six Flags Great America. "Great America on Ice Presents The Best of Broadway" will be performed through September 2, 1996 in the Grand Music Hall.

With the popularity of figure skating growing, it was natural for Six Flags Great America to investigate the idea of an ice production that would be entertaining and exciting for the diverse audiences at the Park.

"We wanted to find something new and different that our audiences have not seen before at Great America," said David Carter, Six Flags Great America's entertainment manager. "Broadway shows like 'Tommy' and 'Grease' make it a high energy, athletic, and musically contemporary show that appeals to a younger audience, but we also highlight dramatic Broadway shows such as 'Phantom of the Opera' and 'Miss Saigon' to appeal to a broader audience."

"We have a great group of talent. Most of the skaters have skated in many shows," said Sandy Lens, choreographer and skater. "Great America on Ice appeals to all age groups. Kids recognize songs from 'Grease,' whereas the adults are more familiar with Broadway and know 'Phantom of the Opera,' 'Tommy,' and 'Miss Saigon,'" said Lens.

Great America on Ice will perform four shows daily through September 2 in Six Flags' Grand Music Hall.

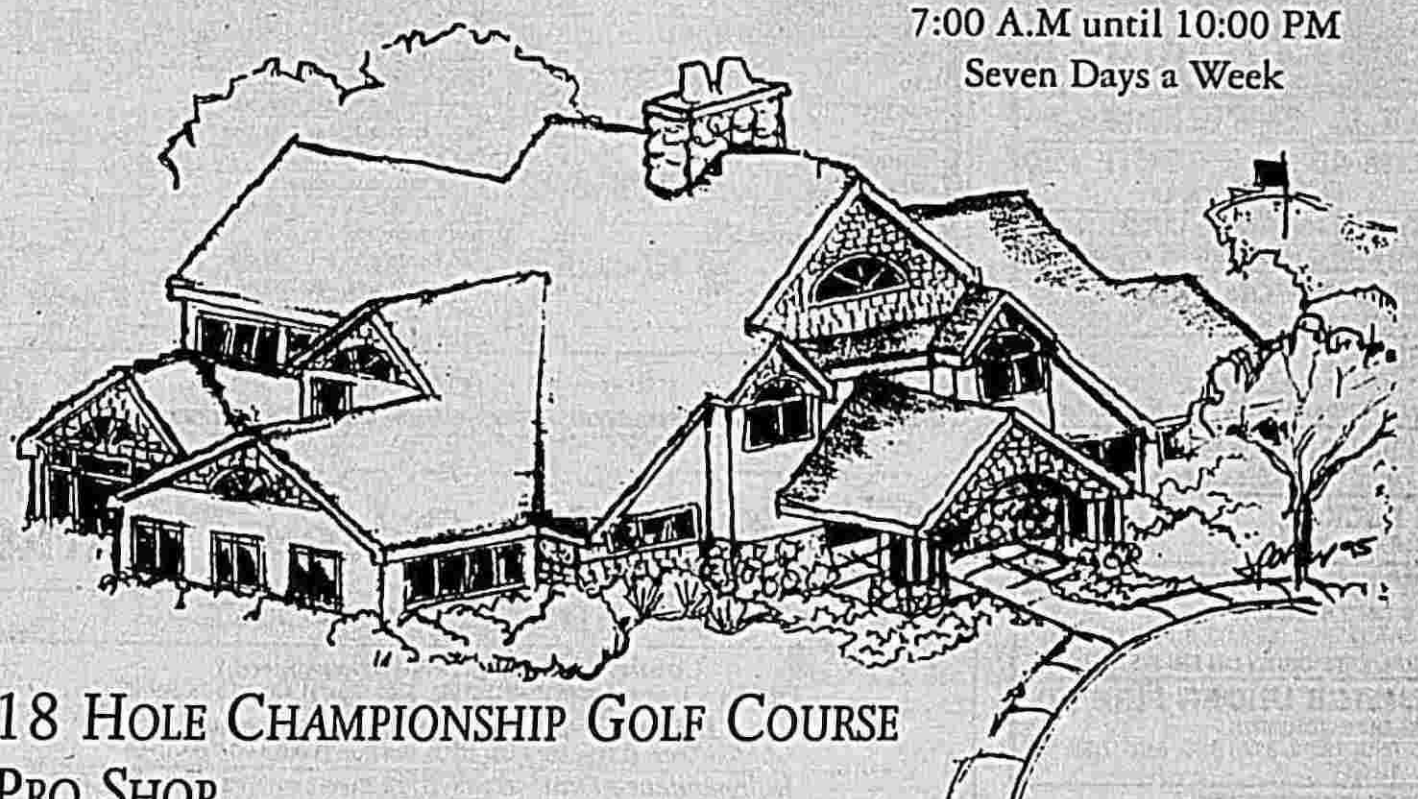

Six Flags Theme Parks Inc., a Time Warner Entertainment Company, is the #2 theme park company in the U.S. and the nation's largest theme park company, hosting more than 21 million visitors a year. An estimated 85 percent of all Americans live within driving distance of the 12 Six Flags theme parks at eight Six Flags locations.

Six Flags Great America is located midway between Chicago and Milwaukee on I-94 at Grand Avenue in Gurnee.

Movie Pick

Effects is all she wrote- 'Independence Day'

In this, the special effects summer of record, "Independence Day" follows the bigger and better agenda by stupefying its audience as "Mr. Green Thing Goes to Washington, - and Moscow, - and New York, - and London, - and Paris, etcetera, etcetera."

Slimy creatures that look like a mixture between an octopus, a dinosaur and the lovable mucousy things from "Alien", fly in humungus flying saucers, large enough to blanket major cities.

Just as they are about to annihilate the earth and all its residents, a "loser" scientist, played by Jeff Goldblum, comes up with an idea that just might stop these planet locusts.

Granted there are some bang-up special effects to outdo most bang up special effects, but that's all there is to this flick.

We often see the best parts of a movie in the TV trailers - and so it is with "Independence," the laser destruction of the White House, a city being virtually destroyed, et cetera, et cetera.

Bill Pullman, through no talent of his own, has copped a major role in four of the latest Hollywood biggies, "Casper," "Sleepless in Seattle," "While You Were Sleeping," and now the biggest, if not the best, summer special effects blockbuster yet.

His role as the president of the USA is a bland one and he does his usual bland job with it.

Goldblum is the same educated nice guy he played in "Jurassic Park," and "Powder." The rest of the cast is as unmemorable as the cast of a 1950's "Attack of the Aliens" flick.

After "Twister," "Mission Impossible," and "Eraser," we thought we had seen it all and then came "Independence Day," filled with bigger explosions, bigger space ships, bigger mob pandemonium, and the smallest and dumbest plot so far.

Brent Spiner, right, plays the scientist who heads the U. S. government's alien research program in "Independence Day."

Rated PG 13, "Independence

Day," is bound to be appreciated by today's catastrophe loving youth. We give it 2.5 stars out of a possible five stars and every bit of that goes to the special effects department.—by GLORIA DAVIS

Horoscope

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You'll begin a home decorating project early in the week. Later, arguments about money are likely to arise, but you've done your financial homework. What you want to do is really affordable. The weekend looks good for a quick getaway.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A new assignment, which will be to your liking, comes your way early on. You could meet with romance through an introduction made on the job. However, those who are in a committed relationship should resist temptation.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your social graces will be an asset in business this week. You'll finally receive recognition for your work from cantankerous bigwigs. A possible disagreement could arise this weekend with a loved one, but avoid being stubborn.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You're a bit restless as the week dawns. Going out for good times is favored over staying at home this week. Travel is in the stars for you quite soon and romance is part of that.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You'll be spending quality time with a romantic interest this week. Avoid confrontations in business since these are sparked by jealous co-workers. Make that special call this weekend to a troubled friend who needs your assistance.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A romantic cycle begins for singles. Bonds of affection will grow stronger among those who are attached. Enjoy fun amusements later in the week, but try to avoid spending too much money; you can have fun inexpensively.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You've been going out more often than usual for fun times. However, try not to let a small upset between friends turn into a huge area of contention in which you're dragged in the middle. Perhaps it's best to relax this weekend.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Travel and artistic interests are likely to be the priorities which are uppermost on your mind this week. Avoid forcing issues in business, even though you are impatient to make certain changes. The situation soon turns in your favor.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your social life will pick up this week, and singles are likely to meet with a new admirer. On the job, it's best to keep peace with that cantankerous co-worker. Eventually, this person meets you halfway in a spirit of cooperation.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A cycle begins that is favorable for shopping. Although you could become impatient with a personal adviser, in business, your charm works wonders. Utilize this to its best advantage. Seek out a trusted friend this weekend.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You'll be sprucing up your wardrobe and appearance this week. You'll also get encouragement to proceed with a project that's been on the back burner at work. Feel free now to jump in.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A disagreement with a friend could occur over money should you decide to say yes to a loan request. Plans for travel fall into place. However, make it a point to guard your valuables.

meeting. Come to one and you'll know what's going on.

Comforting

I'm calling from Antioch. I would like everyone in Lake County to know how wonderful Strang Funeral Home is. They made the tragic death of a child bearable for an entire family and friends. I'd like everyone to know how appreciative we are towards Strang for helping us get through a terrible tragedy.

Dangerous place

On Saturday, July 6 I went to a car race track in southern Wisconsin. It was a hair-raising experience. Everyone, beware, if they ever go anywhere where they have a rocket-type car, please stay away from the fence. They should have told us it was very, very hot and the flames shoot out approximately 30 to 50 feet in back of it. There could have been a terrible accident. It was very scary.

Open side street

I think the city fathers of Fox Lake should get off their duffs and open that side street in front of Menards so people can use the light at Routes 134 and 12. Pulling out of Menards onto Route 12 is very dangerous. Why wait for a major accident before something is done?

Accidents await

I am from Wauconda and am calling in regard to the Wauconda Village Board's decision to create a no-wake area in Bangs Lake in the northeast cove of the lake. I feel what the board has succeeded in doing is create an extremely dangerous situation. At first glance, the area with its new "no wake" sign appears to be a safe haven for boaters to drop anchor and swim off their boats. What the board has forgotten is that this area is actually a heavily trafficked boating area with the site of Lake Point Marina, the Lakeview Villa Boat Mooring area and the Lakeview Villa Boat Launch. This past weekend I came dangerously close to hitting a submerged swimmer in the northeast cove of Bangs Lake. He came to the surface just in time to avoid hitting him with my boat, which was traveling at "no-wake" speed. The village needs to lift the "no-wake" restriction in this area. The boaters will then return to dropping anchor along the safe perimeter of the lake, where they can swim without being in danger of boaters driving past from all directions. Designation of a high traffic boating area as a no-wake area for swimmers is a tragic accident waiting to happen.

Buy a plant

I'm complaining about the person who stole the green plant off the grave as well. That was my granddaughter. It also happened with my mother's grave. I don't appreciate you grave-robbers doing this. Go buy yourself a plant and quit desecrating the cemetery.

Discrimination

I'm calling from Wauconda. I feel the village board is illegally discriminating against water skiers on Bangs Lake. As any avid water skier knows, the calmest water for skiing is found in the early morning, late evening, and in secluded cove. For the past 10 years that I've been skiing on the lake, the board has imposed a "no-wake" restriction before 10 a.m. and after 7:30 p.m., to allow fishermen total use of the lake. I have spent many early morning longings to ski in the early mirror-like waters that seem to disappear after 10 a.m. With the mayor being an avid fisherman, my request to use the lake during these times for skiing went unanswered. The mayor has taken one more step in discrimination of water skiers. He and the board have now created a "no-wake" area in the northeast cove of the lake. This is the only spot where a skier can consistently find smooth water after 10 a.m. Bangs Lake belongs to the state of Illinois, not the mayor and his fishing buddies.

A great time

If you're a country line dancer or would like to be and live in southern Wisconsin, Antioch, Lake Villa, Lindenhurst, or the like, go to the Triple J in Trevor, Wisconsin on Thursday evening from 7:30 to 10:30 and you'll have the time of your life!

Shaq is sad

It's really sad when a bumbling moron like Shaquille O'Neal gets an offer for $95 million to play basketball and turns it down saying it's not enough. The guy can't shoot a free throw, hit a jump shot or make a lay-up. The only thing this buffalo can do is dunk. He's also got a bad attitude and he expects that kind of cash. Guys like Shaq give sports a bad name. Sorry, dude, your body may be bigger than an RV's, but you're not bigger than the NBA.

Bike parade a success

I would like to thank all the parents who donated their time and hard work to contribute to Eagle Point's first annual bike parade. Fifty bicyclists turned out and afterward games, prizes and free food were enjoyed. I'd also like to thank the Fox Lake Fire Dept. for coming out with the pumper fire truck to show the kids, ages 4-14, how a fire truck works. They were thrilled, as were we all. Thanks, again! Lakeside Inn and Resort

Bummer

I'm calling about the 4th of July parade in Fox Lake. My husband, James Van Dyke wanted to ride his Harley Davidson in the parade but they wouldn't let him. I think it's bogus that he served his country and couldn't ride in his town's Independence Day parade. I thought it was pretty rude.

Dangerous lake

I'm from Wauconda and am calling about the current no-wake policy on the northeast cove of Bangs Lake. I was on the lake last weekend and found it to be extremely dangerous due to the limited use of the lake allowed to motorboats. The village has made 1/3 of the lake a no-wake zone and has resulted in an extremely congested area where the wake is allowed. I've been on the lake before on holiday weekends and know how busy the lake becomes. But with the current no-wake restriction of the cove, the main part of the lake became so dangerous, I feared for my family's safety on our boat. Please protect all the users of Bangs Lake, the swimmers, boaters, skiers, and fishermen, by readopting your previous policy of allowing a wake in the cove. As it stands now, the lake is a danger to all who use it.

Not involved

Several Grayslake residents were mentioned in an item titled, "bad behavior" in the July 12 edition of LIPSERVICE. Mrs. Cicmanec, Mrs. Netter, Mrs. Ahern, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Desjardins and Mrs. Engelhart, were attending the meeting as concerned citizens but were not involved in anyway with the school board. Several of the citizens did not even speak at the public meeting. Any discredit to their names is regretted.

Publisher counts photo future in ones and zeros

NEAL TUCKER
 Regional Editor

A picture may be worth 1,000 words but at one Lake County publishing company that phrase could equate to thousands of ones and zeros.

Lakeland Publishers, a Grayslake-based firm that publishes 13 Lakeland Newspapers, the Lake County Market Journal, and the Great Lakes Bulletin for Naval Training Center Great Lakes, has entered the digital era in publishing by jumping in with both feet. All photos and a majority of the graphic elements are scanned into the computer or archived on CD-ROM. The result—a cleaner product, more timely news, and cost reduction.

Lakeland Publishers General Manager Bill Schroeder Jr. is enthusiastic in touting his company's upgrade in technology.

"With photo scanning and CD-ROM technology, this company is on the cutting edge of technology in the publishing world. In fact, for companies this size, we are probably at the top of the heap," Schroeder said.

Schroeder said he is so excited about the technological advances because, until now, little has changed in the prepress world of publishing newsprint since the extinction of lead typesetting. Negatives were shot to glossy, then screened and shot to PMT. The resulting product was then cropped with a layout knife and pasted to a card stock flat with a hot wax application. After that, a thin, black border tape was stripped in around the photo.

The process was both cumbersome and expensive. With the price of newspaper stock spiraling out of control the past few years, something had to be done quickly.

"The publisher (Bill Schroeder, Sr.) and I looked at our overall expenses and determined our prepress costs were out of control. Based on our projections, scanning our elements directly into the computer will pay for itself inside of one year," Schroeder said.

Today, photos are scanned into the computer via a flatbed scanner or negatives via a negative scanner, then manipulated just as they would be in the darkroom with a powerful software program called Adobe Photoshop. When the graphics artist is pleased with the photo on screen, it is then printed out with the rest of the news page on a high resolution laser printer—no chemicals, no cutting, no pasting.

Not only will the reader see a cleaner product, it will also be a more timely one.

"We can now get a breaking news photo in the paper that occurs just hours before press time," confirmed Lakeland Newspapers Editor in Chief Rhonda Hetrick Burke, citing an example. "When the governor flew into Gurnee Mills earlier this month to announce the grand opening of Bass Pro Shops just prior to our deadline, we were still able to get his picture in the paper the next day."

As simple as it sounds, establishing a digital production process was more complicated than merely flipping a switch. First, there were months of research by an in-house appointed committee. Next came the weeks of meetings to determine the perceived benefit as well as to troubleshoot what could See DIGITAL page C2

Company steers toward high tech service

MICHAEL H. BABICZ
 Staff Reporter

A Lake County automobile restoration company wants their name to be synonymous with the auto body repair industry as the 21st century approaches.

Sterling Finish began with a 3,000-square-foot facility just south of its existing operation which will total 72,000 square feet when completed in August. The facility, located at 34740 N. Hwy. 45 with a mailing address of Lake Villa, but considered more in the Gurnee/Grayslake area, will be three times as large as the average shop among the 60,000 facilities in the United States, particularly in one location under a single roof.

Starting out with three employees in 1984, with the completion of the second 36,000-square-foot stage, more than 100 employees will be on the payroll by the end of 1996.

"We've expanded and diversified, including a software division which is being used in shops throughout the United States where people are operating on the management program which we first used," said Gordon Bockwinkel of Gurnee, who owns the company with his brother, Greg.

"We developed our own software for which we have received international exposure," Bockwinkel explained, noting more than 200 shop owners from throughout the United States have flown in to tour the facility just

Technical education is the key to success

MICHAEL H. BABICZ
 Staff Reporter

The success of the Sterling Finish business is the direct result of the commitment of its ownership to education.

In addition to in-house seminars and training for its employees, Sterling is closely aligned with the College of Lake County and Lake County Technical Campus in Grayslake.

In the last school semester, a total of 16 students participated in the auto body internship program at Sterling.

"This has been a key factor," said Gordon Bockwinkel, co-owner. "Education is a key to enhancing the technical skills of our employees along with their communication skills."

Both aspects are critical when it comes to being able to service customers and provide the highest quality of workmanship.

"I like the internship program," said Mike Hughes, a graduate who has since been hired full-time at Sterling. "It helped me out a lot."

Hughes was among four Sterling internship program participants who swept the top four awards in the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) Illinois State competition this past spring.

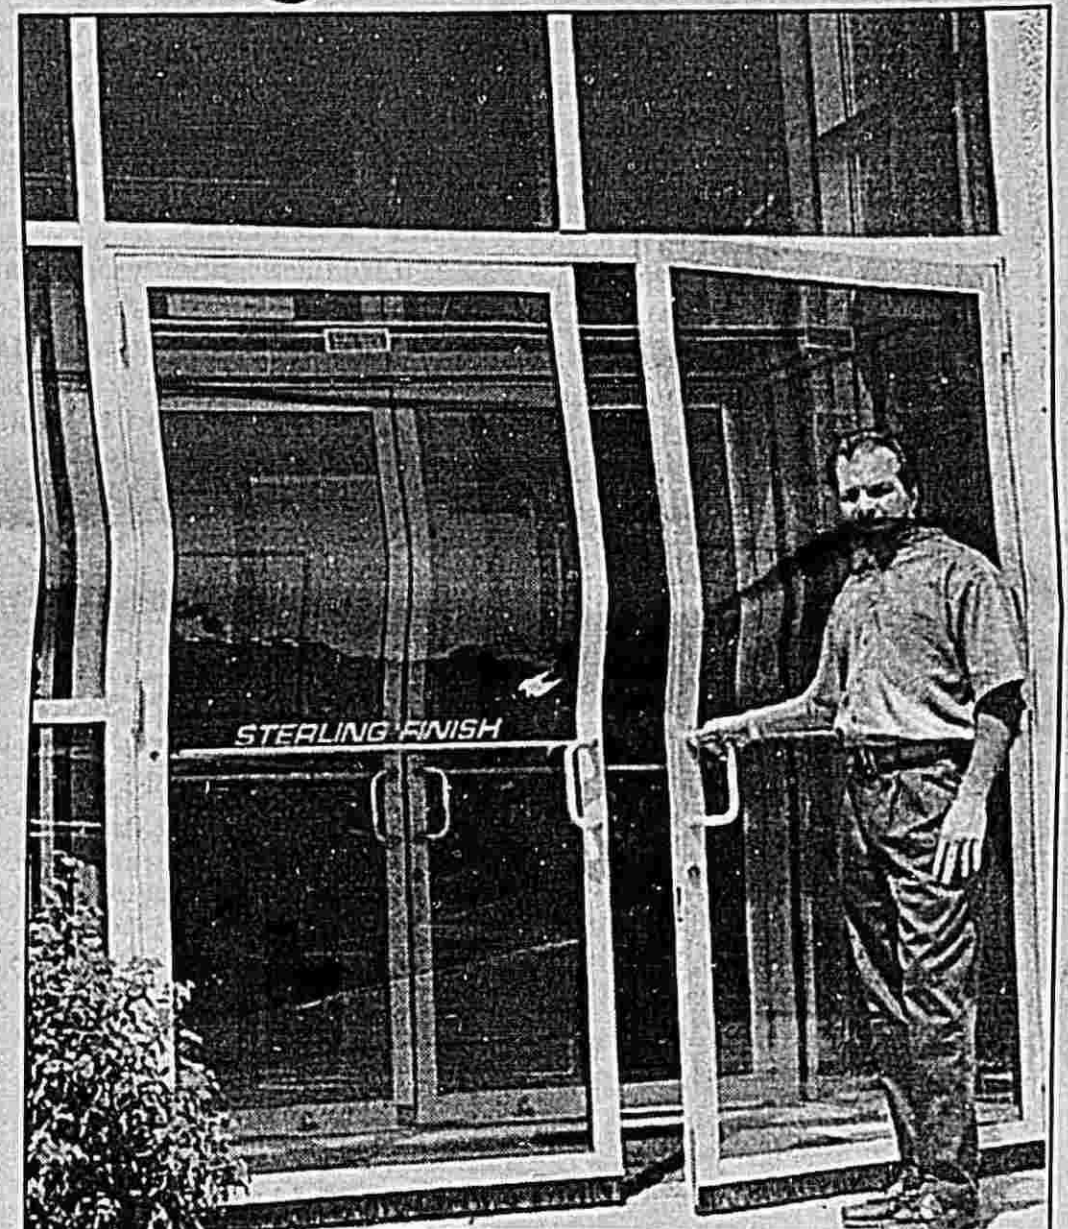

Hughes placed first and went on to finish 20th out of 10,000 in the VICA Nationals which included contestants from all 50 states and provinces.

Other internship graduates working at Sterling include Brett Unruh, Daniel Drews and Eric Bean. Bean placed fourth in the VICA State Contest.

"Continuing education is something which we see as extremely important," Bockwinkel said. "Sterling is very supportive financially to both CLC and the Lake County Technical Campus."

An on-site auditorium along with a staff of consultants in its Sterling Software division allows the company to host seminars and training sessions for its own employees along with others from throughout the body repair industry.

For more information on the internship program or other educational opportunities available through Sterling, phone 223-8522.

Regional bank celebrates anniversary of traditions

When the Bank of Northern Illinois was established by C.R. and R. Steele Bankers in 1852, the City of Waukegan was home to about 3,500 people. Today, with six branches in Lake and Cook counties, it is truly a northern Illinois institution and is celebrating 144 years of continuous service.

The headquarters are still located at 1 S. Genesee St. in downtown Waukegan. A branch in Libertyville was added in 1986, along with two Glenview buildings that were acquired by the holding company, the First Waukegan Corporation. A Gurnee branch opened in 1987; the newest facility is in Lake Bluff, added in 1994.

"We offer a full range of services," said Marketing Director

James T. Berger. "We're a family-owned and operated bank in an era when so many are corporate-owned by outside interests. Our people are always committed to the community."

The chairman of the board of the Bank of Northern Illinois is Thomas R. Eiden. His father Raymond Eiden is chairman of the board for the First Waukegan Corporation and chairman of the executive committee of the Bank of Northern Illinois.

In 1978, the bank, then known as the First National Bank of Waukegan, was purchased from the Steele family. The original name was reinstated in 1989 to more accurately reflect the area of service.—by SUZIE REED

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Network to meet

Digital

possibly go wrong with implementation.

Then came time to bite the real bullet.

The company had to buy the hardware. Even with the short pay-off term, the initial cost was staggering. The company bought flatbed scanners, negative scanners, extra storage capacity in the form of hard drives, an upgrade to the computer network, loads of software, a CD burner to archive photos, high resolution laser printers and a Power Macintosh Photoshop workstation. Some extra expense was added to ensure the policy of being safe rather than sorry.

"Everything in the system is redundant. If we lose one scanner, we have another already running to take its place. The same is true for the printers. And, even better, our service support is located right here in Lake County," Schroeder added.

Looking into the crystal ball, Lakeland Publishers is poised for the future of newspaper publishing. On the horizon is image setting and digital photography. Imagesetting will take the finished product beyond the laser printer and straight to aluminum plate for press, saving on chemicals and personnel hours. With digital photography, there is not only a savings on chemicals and hours but another improvement in news timeliness.

"If we have a photographer at a fire on the other side of the county just minutes before going to press, that individual can link the digital camera into a hand held cellular phone with a modem and download the photos to the production room in real time. It brings a whole new meaning to 'hot off the press,'" Schroeder quipped.

New bank president sees changes

On April 1, Theodore (Ted) Stanulis became President of Waukegan Savings and Loan. After 16 years as the second-in-command of the storied financial institution, Ted sees a broad range of opportunity on the horizon. Three months into his first year as President, Ted Stanulis offers his views about the future of the banking industry, particularly that of Waukegan Savings.

"This is an exciting time to be in the banking business," offered Stanulis. "Changes in the financial industry along with the explosion of new technology the past few years offer a unique set of challenges. And challenges bring potential for growth. I see the period from now through the end of the century as a time of tremendous opportunity. I'm pleased that Waukegan Savings' Board of Directors offered me the chance to meet the challenges and realize the opportunity."

A 1973 graduate of Roosevelt University in Chicago, Stanulis majored in accounting and earned his degree in business administration. He resides in Gurnee with wife Pat. They have adult daughters. In addition to serving as V-P since 1980, Stanulis was elected to the Board of Directors in 1991. He replaced Margaret (Peggy) Gupton as President.

"I can't say enough about the job Peggy did as President. She built a strong foundation under her leadership in large part because of her belief in the local community. In fact, one of her last acts was the appointment of a new field loan officer to strengthen our community presence. I intend to build on that foundation by keeping faith with the community."

Waukegan Savings & Loan will see some changes under Stanulis. "We're excited about the potential of new banking technology. Like many businesses, we see the Internet as uncharted territory with fabulous potential. Whether it's used for electronic banking or simply to keep our customers informed remains to be seen. But the opportunity is there. We're committed to move in the directions that are best for our customers. Waukegan Savings will announce our new Internet site very soon."

Waukegan Savings & Loan has two locations, 900 Tenth Street and 1324 Golf Road. For more information, contact Rob Cooper at the Waukegan Savings & Loan.

Sterling

within the past year.

Six consultants employed by Sterling Software are available for consultation to others in the body shop repair industry. An on-site auditorium allows for seminars and training to be held for employees, as well as outside individuals and groups.

"When you look at things now, all industries are becoming affected by the service of places like Menard's and Marshall Fields," emphasized Bockwinkel, whose background began with retail management for Jewel Food Stores. "I think my work with Jewel has been an asset to Sterling because of their emphasis on service, efficiency and product."

The same three areas are emphasized when it comes to Sterling Finish and its employees.

With a majority of its work coming from insurance, Sterling services an average of 80 vehicles within one five-day work week. With the expansion, an estimated 150 will go through beginning next month. Referrals, repeat customers and word of mouth account for 95 percent of the work volume.

"The key is having the latest in technology," said Bockwinkel, noting the sonar equipment, 24 frame machines, 17 simulated robotic arms and four controlled "down-draft" spray paint booths which are being used. "We have an environmental vacuum system which controls the shop environment."

"With the formula of all of the equipment, having a shop layout which is efficient with production, a vehicle moves in one direction similar to an assembly line," Bockwinkel explained. "We consider ourselves similar to a manufacturing outfit where the process allows for quality control and safety checks to be built in."

The outside image of the facility is purposely geared to resemble a corporate office.

"With today's standards and the cost of cars, people should keep in mind the image which a shop portrays when choosing a place to have body repair work done," Bockwinkel stressed. "Our clients need to protect their investment, which is their vehicle. Cars are typically the first major investment people make and should be treated as such."

Vehicles are able to complete the repair process at Sterling on an average range of three days to three weeks for a more substantial collision.

"It was always my goal to model after the Fortune 500 companies, to become paperless and become service- and quality-oriented," Bockwinkel admitted. "Considering body repair is a $12 billion industry, it should be treated as a service industry."

Ask DON GARLITS

Vehicle misalignment can be safety hazard

Q. We bought a used 1989 Ford Aerostar last year. The front end was out of line when I made the purchase, pulling heavily to the right. I had an alignment done immediately and the pulling was corrected. At that time no mention was made of any difficulty in the alignment process. Not long after this, I noticed oil leaking from the power steering mechanism, apparently from the rack and pinion mechanism. I asked several mechanics who said that replacing the seals wouldn't correct the leakage for very long. I decided to remove and replace the rack and pinion myself.

Of course, once this was done the alignment was out again, so I took it to an alignment shop. When I picked up the car, there was a note on the bill stating they were "unable to align caster to spec, no threads left." The original shop read the comment and agreed with the diagnosis.

Can anything be done in the way of replacement parts to bring this back into spec? Did my work cause any appreciable tire wear, but I think I detect some wear already.—Larry R.

A. From your description of the vehicle, I am concerned about the alignment. When a vehicle cannot be aligned properly, it usually means the car has some damage. This is the first thing I'd try to find out. Any alignment shop should be able to tell if the car has been in an accident.

Sometimes the front end parts are bent; if this is the case, the problem is corrected by replacing them. But if the damage is in the frame pieces or body mounts, no repair of the front end parts will help.

If your vehicle was damaged in an accident and cannot be aligned properly, I would consider replacing it. The caster being slightly out of factory spec should not cause excessive tire wear. Camber and toe-in, however, will cause tire wear. Before doing this, you might want to check with the Ford dealer; there could be something special about the Aerostar alignment I'm not aware of.

Q. I have a 1990 Toyota with a Dolphin motor home that has a V-6 automatic transmission. It's 21 feet long. I would like to know if I can tow a small car with automatic transmission, possibly a four-door import (or another make you recommend), without using a tow dolly. I would appreciate your advice.—Ray Y.

A. I'm more concerned about the effects of towing anything at all with your Toyota, under the weight of the camper, than what kind of car is better to tow. And considering that your camper has an automatic transmission, I have serious concerns. You didn't say how many miles are on the camper, than what kind of car is better to tow.

And considering that your camper has an automatic transmission, I have serious concerns.

You didn't say how many miles are on the camper, but I would be very careful about loading the six-cylinder engine any more that I have to. If you do choose to tow a car, I recommend you use the tow dolly set-up rather than leave all wheels down. I think it's safer and better on the vehicle being towed.

Q. I own a Chevy Astro van with the 4.2 engine. Like one of your readers, I too had an unexplained oil loss. After many conversations with other owners, I have found that for some reason, after 50,000 miles, the oil ports on both sides of the engine clog up.

After I had the ports opened and the oil screened cleaned, I have rarely had to add oil between changes. I've been wanting to write GM about this but have not had the time. Maybe someone there in the know will read this! Thanks for your column!—Steve H.

A. Thanks for sharing that tip Steve! Editor's note: "Big Daddy" Don Garlits answers technical questions of general interest on automobiles, but cannot make personal replies. His answers are intended to point out possible solutions to problems and may not apply in every case. Send questions to Don Garlits, c/o of Lakeland Newspapers, 30 S. ## Car phone adds to highway safety except when driver is distracted

There's not much question that a phone, an asset to personal security, can be a potential hazard if used incorrectly. In some areas, in fact, it is illegal to drive while using the phone. But, while urging sensible use of their products, the cellular phone industry does offer hands-free capability with virtually any phone on the market, allowing the driver to dial and speak with no more distraction than when talking to a passenger.

Meanwhile, whatever type of car phone you may be using, remember that it's a driver error, not the phone, that can cause an accident. Pay attention to priority No. 1: driving.

Driving a car is like using a chain saw—it requires your full attention. One small distraction can result in a full blown crisis. Avoid the following diversions for safe driving.

UPKEEP—Torn carpeting, a sagging headliner, a broken sun visor or a dangling mirror can all be responsible for taking a motorist's mind off the road.

CLUTTER—If you don't need it, remove it. Items such as soda cans, bottles or toys can easily roll under the driver's feet or under the floor petals. Secure briefcases, purses or bags on the seat so they won't tip over. Remove books, sunglasses or tissues from the dash. Make certain items on the rear window shelf are secure and do not obstruct vision. Get out of the habit of using the sun visor for storage. Instead, put letters, combs, tissues, maps, cigarettes and matches in the door panel pocket.

CLOTHING—People dress appropriately to go boating, hiking or the theater, why not driving? Avoid clothing that could become a hazard. Dangling bracelets or loose fitting cuffs can create problems when shifting gears or using turn signals. Loose shoe heels or soles may catch the pedals or floor mats. With the windows open, long hair or scarves can blow across the driver's face.

Griefnotes

How can I prevent difficulties from grief?

Many who confront grief for the first time are surprised at the intensity of their feelings. Grief is most often associated with the death of a loved one but it can also result from divorce, loss of bodily function, moving or from child growing up and leaving home. Because grief is poorly understood, those who have not experienced it personally can be poor helpers. By learning about grief ahead of time we can more capably assist friends in their time of need and can more readily understand the intensity of feelings when death affects our families. Take time to read and inquire about grief and learn ways to assist those in need of support.

PUBLIC NOTICE RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF FIRE AND POLICE COMMISSIONERS OF THE VILLAGE OF ROUND LAKE, COUNTY OF LAKE, STATE OF ILLINOIS, as follows:

SECTION 1: That Chapter II of the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners be amended by adding a new Section 11, as follows:

SECTION 11 — PUBLIC SAFETY RESOURCE CERTIFICATION.

(A) The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners may require, at its option, that all applicants possess, at the time of initial application, a "Public Safety Resource Certificate" from the Illinois Fire & Police Recruitment Administration, which will provide the Board with at least the following information:

1. An aptitude profile designed specifically to determine a candidate's basic cognitive ability to participate in a mandated course of training for the service applied for. The profile shall illustrate strengths and weaknesses that may be used during initial training the probationary periods.

2. A physical agility profile designed specifically to determine a candidate's basic fitness for a mandated course of training for the service applied for. The basic performance scales shall include (1) upper body endurance, (2) abdominal and hip endurance, (3) upper body strength and endurance, and (4) cardiovascular work endurance. (65 ILCS, 5/10-2.1-6-h)

3. A behavioral potential profile designed to identify personality characteristics and attitudes associated with counter-productive behavior. Such profile shall review, but not be limited to, such areas as: Honesty, Interpersonal Style, Personality, Motivations, Alienation, Trustworthiness, and Drug Attitudes. This profile shall be used as an identifier to determine the need for an in-depth clinical psychological evaluation.

4. A historical profile designed to provide a two year background investigation of the candidate, which has been validated for informational reliability.

(B) The Public Safety Resource Certificate shall be issued by the Illinois Fire & Police Recruitment administration as a third-party testing firm qualified by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners. From time to time, the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners shall post a written list containing the name(s), address(es) and telephone number(s) of all qualified third-party testing firms. The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners shall have the right to utilize any such third-party testing firm, limited to the utilization of only one firm during an individual recruitment cycle to ensure uniformity within the testing cycle.

(C) The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners may use the aptitude profile contained in the Public Safety Resource Certification in place of a written examination that it would otherwise utilize, and the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners may use the physical agility profile contained in the Public Safety Resource Certification in place of a physical agility test that it would otherwise utilize, provided that, if it does so for one applicant for a given position, it shall do so for all applicants for such position.

(D) The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners may amend its rules and regulations, as provided by law (65 ILCS 5/10-2.1-5), to specify a more detailed policy and procedure regarding Public Safety Resource Certificates for the use with original appointments, or promotions.

(E) The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners has been given the option to require applicants to possess a Public Safety Resource Certification so that it may use it for so long as it determines that it is useful to the Board in screening applicants. If a Public Safety Resource Certification is required by the Board, it shall do so in a non-discriminatory way. All applicants evaluated for a given position or eligibility list shall be required to possess such a certification.

SECTION 2: That Chapter III of the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioner be amended at Section 3 by adding the following additional Paragraph after the present first Paragraph of Section 3:

As otherwise provided in Chapter II, Section 11, above the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners may use the aptitude profile contained in the Public Safety Resource Certification in place of a written examination that it would otherwise utilize, and the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners may use the physical agility profile contained in the Public Safety Resource Certification in place of a physical agility test that it would otherwise utilize, provided that, if it does so for one applicant for a given position, it shall do so for all applicants for such position.

SECTION 3: That these Amendments shall be in full force and effect from and after ten (10) days of its passage and publication, all as provided by Statute, 65 ILCS 5/10-2.1-5.

Dated this 17th day of July, 1996.

How To Survive The Job Search

By Nancy Sakol

Q: Dear...Search: I have been unemployed for the past seven months and for the first few months I searched actively. Friends tell me that I seem to be procrastinating and that I am lacking enthusiasm. My unemployment compensation will be running out soon and with the job market the way that it is, I seem to need new direction. I find myself sleeping until late morning, and by that time I tell myself it's too late to start calling companies. I make appointments for interviews and find myself making excuses for why I shouldn't go. I make the attempt to go through the newspapers each day and make calls for appointments to interview but I believe I need a kick. What can you suggest for someone in a slump? A.L. - Lakemoore

A: Dear A.L., Know that your problem is a common one. It is best to bring yourself to understand that unemployment compensation is not "vacation pay". Yes, you definitely appear to be in a slump. Start by setting your alarm clock tomorrow morning to awake at 6:30 a.m. Get yourself up and out of the house to take a brisk walk or exercise to get your adrenaline pumping (kind of like getting your engine started). Make tomorrow (not the day after) the day for a change. Go through your closet and take out your best interviewing suit or outfit suitable for interviewing. Make sure that it is clean and pressed so you are sure to look fresh and make a good impression. Next take a look in the mirror. Do you like what you see? If you feel you need to get your appearance in order (haircut, etc...) do so. If you are short of the cash it takes to get this done, look in your local yellow pages for a beauty school. Most often they will give you a cut and style free of charge or for a minimal fee as they have students training for their licenses. Do not be afraid...these students are supervised by professionals. Take a look at your resume...after seven months of being unemployed, you should have one! be sure that it is updated. Check for errors, proofread...proofread...proofread. Errors are most unacceptable. Don't sit at home sending resumes through the mail. This is an exercise in futility after this length of time unemployed. Your time will be better spent if tonight you sit and circle those ads that you see in the paper that you can be prepared to call on for an interview first thing tomorrow morning. Set a specific amount of time to be on the telephone. Get those interviews set up leaving yourself time to get from one to the other. Try to avoid any overlapping. Set appointments only if you intend to keep them. Don't waste other people's time...you have already wasted enough time of your own. Make sure before interviewing that you have a good healthy "I want to work" attitude. Network!!! Let friends and relatives and anyone who may be of help know that you are avidly seeking employment. If you make a change in yourself, the rest should fall into place. Good luck!

Note: Nancy Sakol is a licensed personnel professional and President of Superior Personnel in Gurnee. Letters can be sent to Nancy at 4949 Grand Ave., Gurnee, IL 60031.

PET OF THE WEEK

SARA "SILKY, SOFT, & SWEET!" "SARA" is an adorable, smaller mid-size spaniel/border collie mix. This pretty 1 1/2 yr. old female has a shiny black black, silky, semi-long coat, gentle feathering and fringe tail. Sara's personality is as beautiful as her appearance. Although AFFECTIONATE is the best word to describe her, she is also delightfully playful. Because she is still a puppy at heart and both spaniels and border collies need exercise, she would benefit from having a fenced yard for interactive play. Sara is also gentle, smart and eager to please. She has also had some training. Sara blends the fine qualities of both breeds and we think she will be an outstanding family dog, and a loyal, loving companion. Cage 87. ALL DOGS BENEFIT FROM BASIC HOUSE-BREAKING & OBEDIENCE TRAINING WHICH HELPS BOND DOG TO OWNER. CRATING IS RECOMMENDED WHEN THE OWNER IS AWAY FOR THE FIRST TEAR IF NEEDED.

Cash $55 adoption includes free spay/neuter, collar, tag, leash, first shots, and much more. Orphans of the Storm is located at 2200 Riverwood Rd., Deerfield. Hours are 11 am. - 5 pm., seven days a week. Call (847) 945-0235 for further information.

ENCHANTING

The two-story Enchanting is definitely a design for the hard working family of the 90's. This 3594 square foot beauty has all the features that make this a home you will be proud to show your friends. Elegant stone show cases an impressive exterior that is topped by an ornate tile roof.

The vaulted entry boasts and overhead balcony and a semi-circular staircase to the second floor. The entry leads directly into the vaulted living room. Dual skylights brighten the entire area, while a gas fireplace maintains and even temperature. An arched doorway ushers you into the dining area.

The master suite and home office are situated to the left of the entry. The master suite is loaded with all the amenities you would like to enhance your comfort and convenience. They include his and her walk-in closets, a large sleeping area, personal access to the back deck, linen storage and a private bathroom with shower, vanity and oversized tub with a built-in planter. The adjacent home office is sizeable enough to run a small business from, and contains a walk-in closet. A half-bath is across the hall.

The spacious walk-through kitchen features a walk-in pantry, island stove, trash compactor, Garden Window, eating bar and double ovens. A roomy breakfast nook is on one side of the kitchen and an arched doorway leads to the dining room on the opposite side. Counter space is abundant.

A big family room-theater, with built-in entertainment center will provide hours of enjoyment for you and your guest. Two secondary bedrooms and another half-bath are to the rear of the Enchanting. A good-sized utility room, with built-in ironing board, completes the lower level. The two-car garage accommodates a handy shop/storage area with built-in workbench and a stairway to your own wine cellar.

The upper level of the Enchanting houses a skylit guest suite that can serve overnight visitors or provide permanent quarters for an older relative residing with the household. This floor is also fitted with a recreation room, full bathroom and a secluded loft. The railed balcony overlooks the living room below.

For a study kit of the ENCHANTING (335-043), send $10.00, to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307-LP60, Eugene, OR 97402 (Be sure to specify plan name & number) For a collection of plan books featuring our most popular home plans, send $20 to Landmark, or call 1-800-562-1151.

Calling Plans for Every Part of Your Life.
We understand that long distance is being able to call home when you're away on business. It's being able to keep in close touch with neighbors that moved away. It's being able to call relatives overseas. It's being able to run your business. And with Excel, it's being able to do all these while saving up to 30%, 50% and even 65% on your calls!
For more information on residential, small business, incoming 800 and international long distance services, call today.
